Poet and author. Correspondence (1940–1946) of Don and Dorothy Blanding regarding his books and poetry, and their travels and friends; postcards (1940–1946) from the Blandings sent from various points in their travels; newspaper clippings (n.d.) regarding Blanding and his books; and poetry (n.d.) by Blanding.

Correspondence:
Blanding (to Lamms), July 16, 1946.

Blanding, Ft. Pierce, Florida to Lamms, Mexico, Missouri. December 27, 1941.

Blanding, Dallas, Texas to Lamms, Mexico, Missouri. Posted Jan. 28, 1942.

Blanding, Los Angeles, California to Lamms, Mexico, Missouri. Posted January 28, 1946.
Blanding, Denver, Colorado to Lamm, Mexico, Missouri, Posted March 3, 1942.

Blanding, Salt Lake City, Utah to Lamm, Mexico, Missouri. Posted March 14, 1942.

Blanding, Eugene, Oregon to Lamm. Posted April 23, 1942.

Blanding, Chowchilla, California to Lamm, Mexico, Missouri, Posted May 8, 1942.

Newspaper Clippings:

“Don Blanding is at best in odes to wife.” Sunday Oklahoman, Nov. 20, Review of Floridays.

“Don Blanding, state poet, is called Oklahoma’s troubadour of the skies.” Daily Oklahoman, June 30, 1943.

“A show in Kansas City sets his course.” n.d.

Pamphlet:

Blanding, Don. -A talisman; from a window in Vagabond’s House. Carmel Pine Cone, c. 1938.

Program Announcement:

Autographed. Includes poem "Bataan.”