Oilman and aviator. A scrapbook (1932–1948) of photographs, clippings, and memorabilia relating to Brazell’s interest in flying, along with a copy of an account (1911) of the Civil War experiences of Brazell’s father, J. H. Brazell.

Folder:

1. Typescript of J.H. Brazell’s Civil War experiences. J.H. Brazell served with Company C, 2nd Regiment of the Mississippi Volunteers and fought at the Battle of First Manassas (First Battle of Bull Run), Seven Pines, Gainestown, Sharpsburg (Battle of Antietam), and Gettysburg, where he was taken prisoner (1911).

2. Scrapbook filled with clippings and aviation memorabilia (1935-1941).