Collector. Two biographical typescripts (n.d.) recounting the life of Anna Amelia Doubleday Stanton and her family history. One of the typescripts contains several cowboy-related stories.

Location: 1032.60, Minor B-60
Folder:
1. Typescript of the life and family of Anna Amelia (Doubleday) Staton, written by her daughter, Edythe Pearl (Staton) Brewster; includes a postscript written by Mr. E. R. Brewster, 34 pages. Also a first draft and second working copy, 31 pages.

2. Typescript collection of cowboy stories set in Kansas and Oklahoma, possibly written by Oliver Nelson, Edythe Pearl Brewster's uncle, 198 pages.

3. Two newspaper articles from the Hennessey Clipper, of Hennessey, Oklahoma, dated April 22, 1950. Articles are by Ol (Oliver) Nelson on his experiences and recollections of the territorial opening on April 22, 1889 in Oklahoma Territory. The articles are entitled, “Oliver Nelson Writes of Years Since Opening,” and “Early Territorial Days Recalled By Old Timer.”

4. Journal of Oliver Nelson describing his experiences and the experiences of others as cowboys on the Texas range, circa 1882-1945. The stories appear to have been written from memory by Nelson in 1945.
