Collector. Correspondence (1889–1891) between U.S. Supreme Court justice Joseph P. Bradley and Calvin W. Bradley; news clippings and magazine articles (1915–1973) regarding World War II, the movie Gone With The Wind, Martha Graham, Anna Pavlova, Will Rogers, and Wiley Post; discharge and pension papers (1864, 1908) of Civil War veteran Benjamin Ittner; a notebook (n.d.) regarding the Bertolt Brecht play “Mother Courage and Her Children”; a notebook concerning stage actresses; five notebooks (n.d.) for directors and set designers containing notes about nineteenth century fashions, glass, jewelry, furniture, and interior design; and five publications (1936–1938) produced by the National Play Bureau of the Federal Theater Project.

Box B-70  (Location: 1034.70)

1  Bradley, Joseph P. and Bradley, Calvin W., correspondence.

   Eight letters between the Bradleys, who were cousins. These letters are primarily genealogical in nature tracing family trees and describing family members. Joseph Bradley was appointed as a Justice of the U.S. Supreme Court in 1870. His wife, Mary, was the youngest daughter of Chief Justice Hornblower. This file also contains a short biographical sketch of Joseph P. Bradley and one letter to E. C. Weeks from Joseph P. Bradley, 1889-1891

2  Gone With The Wind, news clippings re. the movie, 1939

3  Graham, Martha, magazine articles and news clippings, 1925-1973

4  Ittner, Benjamin, discharge and pension papers pertaining to Ittner, a veteran of the Civil War, 1864, 1908

5  Miscellaneous

7  Pavlova, Anna, Russian ballerina, news clippings, 1915-1931

8  Rogers, Will and Post, Wiley, news clippings, 1935

9  Voskevec, George, actor, biographical sketch and quotes from reviews, n.d.
Outsized Box #1 (Location: 8384)

Notebook containing materials pertaining to the play, "Mother Courage and Her Children" by Bertolt Brecht. Divided into the following sections: section from theaterarbeit, selected enlargements from theaterarbeit, Berliner ensemble actors in costume, Leider zu muttercourage und ihre kinder, chronologies maps and charts, visuals of the period (historical), n.d.

Notebook containing pictures, news clippings, magazine articles, etc. concerning many stage actresses such as Laurette Taylor, Sarah Bernhardt, and Ethel Barrymore, various dates.

Outsized Box #2 (Location: 8384)

Notebook titled "Visual Style Book of the Nineteenth Century for Designers and Directors" by John A. Bryan. Includes pictures, news clippings, and notes on topics such as royal residences and Victoria, Albert & children, Nov. 1983

Notebook titled "Glass, Jewelry, Furniture-Interiors." Includes pictures, news clippings, and notes arranged in three sections: glass, jewelry, and furniture.

Notebook titled "Family, Society, Cities, Architecture, Fine Arts." Includes pictures, news clippings, and notes arranged in three sections: the family, society and recreation - 19th Century; visual art in paintings, greeting cards, music & book covers and theatre; and 19th Century urban life, architecture.

Notebook titled "Appendices, Bibliographies." Includes pictures, news clippings, and notes.

The following publications were produced by the National Play Bureau of the Federal Theatre Project.

Folk Tunes From Mississippi collected by Arthur Palmer Hudson and edited by George Herzog, Music Research Department, National Play Bureau Publication No. 25, July 1937.

101 Selected Plays for Puppet Theatre compiled by Community Service Department, National Service Bureau Publication No. 44-L, Aug. 1938.