Chupco, John (d. 1881). Typescript, 1874. 1 item.
American Indian chief. A typescript of a news article (1874) from the Cherokee Advocate, entitled “A Protest by John Chupco, P. P. Pitchlynn, et al.,” in which Chupco, Pitchlynn, and a number of Indian leaders protest efforts by white men to stop the formation of a ruling general council of Indians for Indian Territory, as provided by the Treaty of 1866, and efforts to extend a federal territorial government over Indian Territory.

Item:
1. Cherokee Advocate--March 14, 1874. "A Protest by John Chupco, P.P. Pitchlynn et al." to the President and Congress of the United Stated, protesting efforts by whites to stop the formation of a ruling "General Council" of Indians for Indian Territory, as promised by the Treaty of 1866, and also protesting efforts to create a territorial government of the US over Indian Territory (3 copies)

2. Letter from John Chupco to William Penn Adair, asking what particular points the Senate committee is seeking information in the matter of creating a territory of the US in Indian Territory, October 18, 1878.