Drug company. This collection consists of twenty-seven issues (1940–1951) of CIBA Symposia. Each issue is devoted to specialized topics in the history of medicine, including information on pregnancy and childbirth among Native Americans.

Issues of the Ciba Symposia, published monthly by Ciba Pharmaceutical Products:

Volume 1, no. 11. February 1940: The Army Surgeon
Volume 6, no. 5-6. August-September 1944: Arabian Pharmacology
Volume 6, no. 7. October 1944: Comparative Morphology
Volume 6, no. 9. December 1944: Malaria
Volume 7, no. 3-4. June-July 1945: Clothing and Hygiene
Volume 8, no. 3-4. June-July 1946: Search and Research
Volume 9, no. 1-2. April-May 1947: Early Psychotherapy
Volume 9, no. 3-4. June-July 1947: The Medical School of Vienna
Volume 9, no. 5-6. August-September 1947: Monsters in Nature and Art
Volume 9, no. 7. October 1947: Medicine in Ethiopia
Volume 9, no. 9. December 1947: American Medical Societies
Volume 9, no. 10. January-February 1948: Medical Coins and Medals
Volume 9, no. 11. March-April 1948: Mesmerism
Volume 10, no. 2. September-October 1948: The Dream
Volume 10, no. 4. January-February 1949: Early History of Embryology
Volume 10, no. 5. March-April 1949: Gymnastics
Volume 10, no. 6. May-June 1949: Medical Illustration

Volume 11, no. 2. September-October 1949: Origins of Medical Specialization

Volume 11, no. 3. December 1949-January 1950: Primitive Obstetrics

Volume 11, no. 4. February-March 1950: Medicine in Japan

Volume 11, no. 5. Summer 1950: French Psychiatry of the 18th Century

Volume 11, no. 6. Fall 1950: The White Potato

Volume 11, no. 7. Winter 1950: Early History of Legal Medicine

Volume 11, no. 8. Spring 1951: Cremation

Volume 11, no. 9. Summer 1951: Medicine in History

Volume 11, no. 10. Fall 1951: History of Allergy