Cornell, Kearns Bryon  (b. ca. 1890).  Printed materials, ca. 1950.  3 items.
Politician. An article (1950) concerning the announcement of Cornell’s candidacy for the U.S. Congress and explaining his platform, which included advocacy of a return of prohibition; a pamphlet (ca. 1950) in comic book format, entitled “Here’s What A Republican Congress Did For You”; and a letter (1950) to James Babcock, giving a brief personal history of Cornell.

___________

Item:
1. Brief biographical sketch of Mr. Cornell, July 1950.
