Covington, J. A. Diaries 1863–1900. .10 feet.
Government employee. Photocopies of diaries (1863–1900) kept by Covington and describing his work at the Cheyenne-Arapaho Indian Agency and his travels to Alaska during the Klondike gold rush.

1. Photocopy of diary by J. A. Covington, 1863, 1865, 1866. Many of the copies are difficult to read.

2. Photocopy of diary by J. A. Covington, 1875, describing his work at the Cheyenne-Arapaho Indian Agency, 1896-1897, and describing his travels to Alaska during the Klondike gold rush.

4. The Diaries of Jacob Amic Covington, 1863-1900, by Duncan Covington (2003). This item is a transcription of the photocopied diaries listed above, plus some photocopied supplementary research materials.