Cruce, Cruce, and Bleakmore Collection. Papers, 1899–1935. 25 feet.

Law firm. Legal documents and correspondence from the law firms Cruce, Cruce, and Cruce (1899–1901); Cruce, Cruce, and Bleakmore (1901–1912); and Potter and Cruce (1912–1928) reflecting the firm's practice representing Chickasaw Indian citizenship and allotment claims, banking interests, and oil and gas companies. Also in the collection are correspondence and speeches from Lee Cruce's gubernatorial campaign of 1907 and his senatorial campaign of 1930.

Although named for the law firm of Cruce, Cruce, and Bleakmore, the bulk of this collection is from other related sources. Boxes 1 through 5 contain correspondence from the law firm of Cruce, Cruce, and Cruce, which consisted of the three brothers, Andrew Cavitt Cruce, William Isaac Cruce, and Lee Cruce. In 1901, Lee Cruce (later to become the second Governor of Oklahoma) left the firm to become President of the Ardmore National Bank. Boxes 6 through 8 cover the brief period during which the firm operated as Cruce (A.C.) and Cruce (W.I.). In 1902, W.R. Bleakmore joined the firm, then known as Cruce, Cruce, and Bleakmore. The firm operated under this title through 1909. Boxes 9 through 27 cover this interval.

Boxes 28 through 76 were added to the collection at a later date, and originate from a completely separate law firm. In 1912, Andrew Cruce moved to Oklahoma City where he and his son, Major Cruce, practiced law. The Oklahoma City firm was known variously as Stuart, Cruce, and Gilbert, and Cruce, Cruce, and Gilbert, and Stuart, Sharp, and Cruce. These boxes contain correspondence, legal materials, and trial documents for the various cases the Oklahoma City law firm handled from approximately 1911-1928. As the documents have been maintained in the same order as kept by the firm, cases are generally alphabetized by either plaintiff or defendant. Box 77, which was acquired in 1967, contains material specifically relating to Lee Cruce. The correspondence and speeches included in this box pertain to Lee Cruce's political activity from the years 1925-1932.
