Day, John Lewis. Printed materials, 1910–1941. .10 foot
Physician. A daybook (1910–1911); a pamphlet (1913) on preparation for childbirth; reprints of two articles (1932, 1941) by Day; and a copy of Harlow’s Weekly (1935) containing a story about Day.

Item:
1. Chart and diagnosis card for Lewis N. Baker (1912).
3. "Preparing for the Baby" by Dr. Day.
4. "The Physician, a Leader in Mental Hygiene", read before the Oklahoma State Medical Association (1932), and reprinted from the Journal of the Oklahoma State Medical Association, by Dr. Day and Dr. J. J. Gable.
5. "The Relation of the Mental Hospital Physician to the Patient and his Relatives," by Dr. Day. Reprinted from the January 1942 issue of the Journal of the Oklahoma State Medical Society and read at the Oklahoma State Medical Association meeting on May 21, 1941.