Duncum, Floy. Papers, 1941. 3 items.
Collector. Memoirs (n.d.) of James Louis Avant, relating his experiences as bailiff of the U.S. District Court for Western Arkansas at Fort Smith, Arkansas, and as disciplinarian of the Kiowa Indian schools at Anadarko, Oklahoma Territory, along with anecdotes of a hunting trip in the Kiamichi Mountains (Oklahoma), plus two obituaries (1941) of Avant.

Item:
1. Newspaper clipping about James Louis Avant's death (no name, no date).
2. Clipping about J. L. Avant's death, "Pioneer is called for Last Roundup" by Dick Mitchell (no name, no date).