Collector. Discharge certificates (1860–1880) issued by the U.S. Army to Seminole freedmen, including David Bowlegs, for service rendered during and after the Civil War.

Folder:
1. Originals and photostat copies of discharge papers for different dates of service in the Union Army. All the discharge papers are of David Bowlegs, a Seminole Freedman, who served in the Union Army.

2. Civil War discharges of David Bowlegs.

3. Photostat copy of the Will of J. Coody Johnson, an African-American lawyer who appeared successfully before the U.S. Supreme Court. He also served as Secretary to Governor Brown. The will is written out in longhand. Johnson left the bulk of his estate in trust to be used for the purpose of establishing a school for African-Americans in Oklahoma (October 11, 1923).
