Fletcher, Margaret Catherine. Diary, 1879–1914. 1 item.
Homemaker. A bound photocopy of Margaret Catherine Fletcher’s diary (1879–1914), which includes information regarding the history, politics, economics, and everyday life of the Flint District, Cherokee Nation; descriptions of early Tahlequah, Indian Territory, and Fort Smith, Arkansas; and detailed genealogical information concerning the Adair, Bixby, Fletcher, Guthrie, and Sanders families, including lineage charts and personal name indexes.