Collector. Newspaper clippings (1860–1956) regarding the history of the Missouri-Kansas-Arkansas-Oklahoma border area, including information on Indians, border industries, monuments and landmarks, the Civil War, and individuals such as George W. Carver and Belle Starr.

Folder:

1. Newspaper clippings regarding towns.
2. Newspaper clippings regarding towns.
3. Newspaper clippings regarding personalities.
4. Newspaper clippings regarding Percy Wenrich, composer of "Old Grey Bonnet" and "On Moonlight Bay".
5. Newspaper clippings from the Carthage (Missouri) Free Press regarding the military (1957).
6. Newspaper clippings regarding lawlessness.
7. Newspaper clippings regarding museums and parks.
8. Newspaper clippings regarding monuments and parks.
10. Newspaper clipping entitled "In the Age of the Dinosaurs" (February 16, 1958).
11. Newspaper clippings regarding Table Rock Dam; travel souvenirs.
12. Newspaper clippings regarding industries.
14. Newspaper clippings from the Joplin (Missouri) Globe entitled "Union Soldier's Diary Tells of Civil War in This District" (March 2, 1958).
15. Newspaper clippings regarding churches and religion.

16. Newspaper clippings regarding writers and authors.

17. Newspaper clippings entitled "Missouri's First Native Born and First Republican Governor -- Who Was He?" (re: Thomas Clement Fletcher).

18. Newspaper clipping from the Joplin (Missouri) Globe entitled "Early Explorers 'Found' Four-State District on Surge From South More Than 400 Years Ago" (March 2, 1958).

19. Newspaper clippings regarding education.

20. Newspaper clippings regarding archeology in Missouri.

21. Newspaper clippings regarding agriculture and industry.

22. Newspaper clippings from the Carthage (Missouri) Evening Press entitled "Letters of Pioneer Sarcoxie Physician" (re: Dr. Alexander Wilson) (October 9, 1957).

23. Newspaper clippings regarding transportation.

24. Newspaper clippings regarding antiquities.