Goodland Indian School Collection. Printed materials, 1940–1956. 5 items.
American Indian school and orphanage. Newspaper clippings (1956); brochures (1950);
pamphlets (1955); and a published history (1940) of the Goodland Indian School, a Presbyterian orphanage founded for the Choctaws, but later expanded to serve orphans from other tribes as well.

Box G-11
Folder:
1. Publications about Goodland Indian School, including: "The Goodland Indian Orphanage: A Story of Christian Missions" (1940); program for the dedication of Bacon Hall at Goodland Indian Orphanage (April 18, 1955); Goodland Centennial Souvenir Program (1950); an unused business envelope from Goodland; First Presbyterian Church of Tulsa 1955 World Fellowship Meetings program. The Goodland Indian Orphanage Boys' Glee Club sang during the dinner (1955).

Tribute to Thanksgiving".