Physician. A receipt (1857) for the sale of a slave, along with Haynes’s enrollment forms (1897) establishing his eligibility for Cherokee citizenship.

Item:

1. Letter from Dr. A. D. Cloyd to Dr. Haynes regarding his commission as Camp Physician for the Woodmen of the World, a fraternal organization, November 1, 1902.

3. Also in mylar envelope, two newspaper clippings regarding the death of Dr. Haynes, 1939.

4. An application for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen. Dr. Haynes petitioned the United States Commission for the Enrollment of Cherokee Citizens for enrollment as an intermarried Cherokee. His wife, Sarah, was a citizen of the Cherokee Nation. Dr. Haynes also petitioned for the enrollment of his two children, 1897.

5. A copy of Your Doctor: A Magazine for Patients, with an article about doctors in Oklahoma and Indian Territories, Volume 1 #6, June-July, circa 1950s.