University of Oklahoma Alumnus. A collection of newspaper clippings and a fire-damaged cigarette case saved by Richard D. Hazen from the 1949 BOQ (Bachelor Officers’ Quarters) fire at the University of Oklahoma. Hazen was a survivor of the fire, and a 1951 graduate of the School of Petroleum Engineering.

Items:
1. A fire-damaged metal cigarette and lighter case from the 1949 BOQ fire.
2. “Going, Going, Gone!” newspaper clipping from The Daily Oklahoman, 1949.
5. “Grim Evidence,” newspaper clipping from an unidentified Oklahoma newspaper.