Hengst, Herbert Randall, Sr. Papers and sound recordings, 1951–1985. 2.3 feet.

Professor. This collection is an oral history project of the Center for Studies in Higher Education at the University of Oklahoma. The purpose of the project was to document the history of the University of Oklahoma through interviews with former administrators, faculty and staff members, regents, and alumni. The collection contains 131 cassette tapes and transcriptions of interviews (1979–1985), background information on the interviewees, and administrative records (1951–1985) of the project. This collection also contains Special Training Program Notebooks (1972–1979) of the Center for Studies in Higher Education’s Special Training Program in Educational Administration for officials of the Ministry of Education of Saudi Arabia.

Series one contains the administrative records of the oral history project.
