Horton, Guy K. (b. 1912). Manuscript, ca. 1979. 1 item. Attorney and state legislator. An unpublished, typewritten memoir (ca. 1979) of Horton’s life in southwestern Oklahoma as an attorney and state legislator. The memoir contains references to his family, his boyhood, his college years, and especially to Oklahoma politics and his career as a state legislator.

Biographical Note:
Guy K. Horton was a long-time legislator, attorney, and public figure from Altus, Oklahoma.

Minor Box H-34 (Loc. 1122.34)
Folder:

1. Unpublished manuscript draft of Horton's memoirs titled, "In a Dry and Thirsty Land." (138 pages).

2. Journal articles and newspaper clippings.

"Colonel Jack Love" by Guy K. Horton, n.d.

The Lawyer, "The Dartmouth College Case" by Guy K. Horton, Sept. 1942.

Form letter addressed to "Honorable Representatives" by the Oklahoma State Industrial Union Council Affiliated with Congress of Industrial Organizations re. H.B. 196 which would place a ban on political activities of unions, Feb. 11, 1949.

Copy of H.B. 196, Mar. 21, 1949.

"The Need For Readers" by Guy K. Horton, news clipping, n.d.

"About Higher Education" by Guy K. Horton, news clipping, n.d.
Oversized Materials:

Campaign newspaper, newspaper advertisements, and newspaper clippings.

- "Horton's Verbal Blast Bypassed by Governor," n.d.
- "Don't Forget an Old Friend, Ten Years of Faithful Service Deserve Your Consideration," n.d.