Merchant. A daily account book (1919–1920); a trade token advertising Houghton’s stores; and photocopies of other financial records (1901–1943) belonging to Houghton, who owned general merchandise stores in the towns of Guthrie, Coyle, Cashion, Meridian, and Goodnight, Oklahoma.

Folder:
1. Contains photocopies of Houghton's business financial records, family correspondence, photographs of his cotton gin, stock certificates, and newspaper articles about Houghton. Also includes a photocopy of a postcard of Guthrie concerning the Oklahoma capital change and a metal token advertising the Houghton stores. A brief biography of Houghton is included, 1901-1943.