Johnson, William E. Papers, 1912–1917. .10 foot.
Government employee. A letter (1914) describing Johnson’s trip to Russia, along with newspaper clippings (1912–1917) of stories about Johnson and his work to prevent the sale of alcoholic beverages to American Indians. Among the clippings is a two-page article (1917) written by Johnson and entitled “Ten Years of Prohibition in Oklahoma.”

Biographical Note:
William E. Johnson was a special agent of the Indian Bureau for the purpose of stamping out the sale of intoxicants to American Indians.

Folder:
1. Letter - 4 pages, January 20, 1914
2. Various newspaper clippings re: William E. Johnson, Dr. Howard H. Russell, the "Rail-Splitter Quartet", Clifford Lee Johnson - son of William Johnson, litigation against saloons, satirical cartoons about breweries, liquor dealers, saloons, and the government. Also a 2-page newspaper article, "Ten Years of Prohibition in Oklahoma" by William E. Johnson, dated December 1, 1917.