Jones, Daniel C. Papers 1941–1944. .10 foot.
Airman. Correspondence (1941–1944) from Daniel C. Jones to his mother, Cecilia Jones of Kent, Ohio. Daniel C. Jones was in military training at the Army Air Force Technical School at Seymour Johnson Field, North Carolina; at Peterson Field, Colorado Springs, Colorado; and at Will Rogers Field, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. Jones’s letters describe his basic training, daily routine, family relations, and his medical discharge from service. The collection also includes one letter dated October 8, 1941 from Keith (?), who was at the Alabama Institute of Aeronautics, Inc., Tuscaloosa, Alabama, to Grace (?). This letter describes in detail the aeronautics course he was taking to qualify as a pilot.

Folder:
1. Correspondence, 1 letter, October 8, 1941
2. Correspondence, 13 letters, 6 postcards, April 19, 1943 - December 23, 1943
3. Correspondence, 7 letters, January 29, 1944 - February 29, 1944
4. Correspondence, 17 letters, March 1-30, 1944
5. Correspondence, 3 letters, April 1-6, 1944