Latty, James Monroe (1861–1937). Papers, 1898. 3 items.
Farmer. A letter (1898), with typescript copies, by James M. Latty of Muskogee, Indian Territory, to his brother in Idaho, describing his intention to move west so that his children would receive a better education.

This collection is available online at the University of Oklahoma Libraries website.

Items:
One holographic letter, 1898, by James Monroe Latty of Muskogee, Creek Nation, Indian Territory, to his relative John W. Latty of Glenn's Ferry, Idaho. In the letter Latty relates his wish to leave the Indian Territory for Idaho so that his children will receive better education.

Also included in this collection are two transcriptions of the original letter as rendered by the donor of this collection, Dr. Bennett. One is an exact transcription, and the other is a translation into grammatically correct English. Dr. Bennett is a direct descendant of John W. Latty.
