Mackey, (Mrs.) Clifton Marion. Papers, 1912–1977. 1 foot.

Homemaker. Correspondence (1912–1977) between Alice Hurley Mackey and her brother, Patrick Hurley, regarding Hurley’s duties as the national attorney of the Choctaw Nation, as a colonel in the American Expeditionary Forces, as secretary of war during the Hoover administration, and as an ambassador during World War II. The collection contains Hurley’s correspondence with Herbert Hoover, Henry Luce, Franklin D. Roosevelt, and Madame Chiang Kai-Shek. Also included is a diploma (1912) issued to Alice Hurley by the Sisters of Saint Joseph Carondelet in Missouri.

Box 1
Folder:
1  Correspondence: Includes letters from Patrick Hurley to his sister concerning Hurley’s career as National Attorney for the Choctaw Nation. 1912-1916.

2  Correspondence: Includes letters from Hurley, Lieutenant Colonel, American Expeditionary Forces, France. 1917-1918.

3  Correspondence: Includes letters from Hurley, Lieutenant Colonel, A.E.F.; letter concerning the nomination of Coolidge; letters from Secretary of War Hurley to his sister, Mrs. Clifton Mackey. 1919-1930.

4  Correspondence: Includes letters concerning the Bonus Riot; letters from Secretary of War Hurley; and letters from E.E. Dale to Mrs. Clifton Mackey. 1931-1932.

5  Correspondence: Includes correspondence between Hurley and Herbert Hoover, Henry Luce, and Supreme Court Justice Thomas Andrews; and letters from Grant Foreman to Mrs. Mackey. 1933-1934.

6  Correspondence: Includes letters from Foreman to Mackey; letters concerning Hurley’s foreign missions re. World War II activities. 1935-1942.

7  Correspondence: Copies of letter from President Roosevelt to Hurley; letters from Foreman to Mackey; speeches and news releases by Hurley concerning American foreign policy as re. China. 1943-1945.

8  Correspondence: Copies of letters to Hurley from Madame Chiang Kai-shek; letter from Hurley concerning Chinese policy; copy of letter from Alfalfa Bill Murray to Hurley.
Correspondence: Letter concerning McCall’s magazine article re. Bonus March. 1949-1954.

Correspondence: Letters to Mackey re. the Kennedy Administration. 1961-1962.

Correspondence: Includes information concerning Hurley’s death; letters from Dale to Mackey. 1963-1973.

Hurley, Patrick J.: Family History Including Outline, etc. 1949, 1963-64, 1974-75.

Hurley, Patrick J.: Re. Sister, Josephine Hurley, 1959, 64.

Hurley, Patrick J.: Re. Sister Nan (Sister Mary Aloysius). 1926, 42, 45, 69.

Hurley’s wartime role, 1942-1944.

Box 2
Folder:
1 Correspondence received from Walter Stanley Campbell (a.k.a. Stanley Vestal) regarding the events and progress in the lives of he and his family. 1934-1957.

2 Correspondence and postal cards and Christmas cards from Campbell--undated. Undated.
3. Publications sent by Campbell, including programs from the University of Oklahoma Short Course on Professional Writing, and articles regarding Campbell. 1945-1952.

4. Correspondence from Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ferguson of Tulsa. 1933-1936.

6. Correspondence (one letter) from Frederik Holmberg, Dean of the University of Oklahoma College of Fine Arts, and his wife, Signy, regarding their views on friends. 1935.

7. Correspondence from Dr. Edward Everett Dale, Sr. of the University of Oklahoma, regarding the events of his life. 1932-1964.

8. Letter written by Patrick Jay Hurley to Lieutenant Colonel William G. Bell regarding the proposed establishment of a national security affairs magazine, and Hurley’s views regarding the same; also a letter of transmittal to Mrs. Mackey for the above item, sent by Mr. Irving G. Williams of St. John’s University in Jamaica, New York. 1961-1970.

9. Letter by Mrs. “Lady” Locke Archer of Antlers, Oklahoma, regarding her nephew, Nelson Locke, and life in Antlers, Oklahoma. Her actual name was Mrs. Charles Archer. Also included is a note by Mrs. Clifton Mackey recording her affection for Mrs. Archer, and another note by Mrs. Barbara Mackey Ogilvie, daughter of Mrs. Clifton Mackey, regarding her mother’s note. 1941.

10. Letter from Patrick J. Hurley to his sister, Alice Abigail Hurley (Mrs. Clifton Mackey) regarding his experiences in airplanes. 1927.

11. Photocopies of notes pertaining to Hurley family genealogy from the mid-1800s in Ireland to the mid-to-late 1900s in Texas. Largest part comes from notes taken by Alice Hurley Mackey while with her sister, Nan, in Houston, TX, 1943. c. 1900-87.

12. A handwritten note to Mary Mackey Sainsbury asking her to consider donating the E.E. Dale papers to the University of Oklahoma, circa 1960s.

Typewritten letter from E. E. Dale to Alice Mackey thanking her for her letter of July 29th, offering to go over her article on the Doniphan Expedition. Details relationship of Doniphan to his family. Refers to visit to Washington, DC calling at office of Alice’s brother, Patrick J. Hurley. Relates he is leaving for a vacation in northern New Mexico. Sending a copy of his book The Prairie Schooner to her. August 5, 1930.
Typewritten letter from E. E. Dale thanking Alice for sending her Doniphan manuscript, stating he had read it and encouraging her to continue writing. October 22, 1930.

Typewritten letter from E. E. Dale thanking Alice for clippings. Remarks on her club work and jokes about his wife’s presidency of the P.E.O. which he believes stands for “Paw eats out.” Encourages Alice to continue to send her Doniphan manuscript out for publication. Reference to her daughter (Mary Alice Hurley Mackey) being ready for high school. February 23, 1931.

Typewritten letter from E. E. Dale regarding the Mackeys’ move to Tulsa and Alice’s consideration of writing again. He encourages her to do so and is sending her a copy of Readings in Oklahoma History published in 1930. Goes on to discuss Tom Starr, an early-day outlaw, and encourages her to write about the Starrs. He suggests work on Stand Watie and John Rollin Ridge. Offers her a tour of the Frank Phillips Collection on any Sunday she can come over. Refers to the fact that Pat Hurley was in large part responsible for helping him secure the funds for purchasing the Phillips Collection for the University. Details the civic luncheon in El Paso over which Alice presided and wonders if Pat and Ruth Hurley would like copies of his new book. October 20, 1931.

Typewritten letter from E. E. Dale inviting Alice and the family for dinner. Thanks her for letting him know that Pat Hurley is interested in his work. Talks about Alice’s ambition to write the life of her brother, but thinks she would be wise to write other work before tackling a biography. Paragraph about Georgia Shutt (Bartleson) who was Sainsbury’s grandmother’s friend from college. Talks about Illinois River (?) in Tahlequah, Oklahoma, and fishing there. Goes on to talk about Rachel Carolyn Eaton’s Life of John Ross which he has read several times. Reference to Grant Foreman and arranging to get him into Phi Beta Kappa as an honorary member. Sending a couple of volumes of his to Pat Hurley and hopes he and Mrs. Hurley will give them a place in their library. (These may have been lost in a fire) November 16, 1931.

Typewritten letter from E. E. Dale thanking Alice for her letter. Just returned from New Mexico vacation and talks about Gene Graham, the son of a family friend, and finding him work with Mrs. Kraettli and a place for his meals. Talks about her visit with the Secretary (Pat Hurley, U.S. Secretary of War) wishing he might come to Norman and see the collection. Asks her to come again and bring the family and hopes she’ll come in the fall and work in the collection. September 20, 1932.

An incomplete letter to Mary Mahala Sainsbury’s mother. She refers to a trip to Norman for a dinner at the Bizzells, the University Press, and some of the history faculty are having to honor Frank Phillips, November 4, 1935.

Letter from Joseph A. Brandt to Alice regarding not having an opportunity to talk at the reception, November 20, 1935.

Typewritten letter from E. E. Dale thanking Alice for her letter and that she liked the Cavaliers. Says he is prejudiced because he has gone over all these letters and the characters are very real to him. His friend, Gaston Litton, fell in love with Jacqueline Watie. Refers to final exams at the university and seeing Alice’s daughter (Barbara Mackey Ogilvie) two or three times a week and hopes to get better acquainted with her during the second semester. January 16, 1940.

Typewritten letter from E. E. Dale that talks of appointment of Pat Hurley as Ambassador to China. Recounts administrative situation at the university, two months the previous summer spent at the Huntington Library in San Marino, California, working on a study of the Indians of that region and presenting six lectures at the University of Wyoming on History of the West. Notes he will have a leave of absence to study the Indians of Oklahoma under a Rockefeller Grant. Talks about his children. Talks about reprints of The Social Homesteader and believing he had sent her a copy of Memories of Frederick Jackson Turner, Handwritten note at the bottom refers to enclosure of clippings from a friend in Washington, DC. December 1, 1944.

Typewritten letter from E.E. Dale to Alice expressing surprise that Mary and Barbara are living in Pasadena and San Marino, respectively, and that Alice has four grandchildren and he one. He is glad to hear that Alice is well again. Sending her brochures. Working on a series of records on early Oklahoma history which he is making. Describes the process. Wishes Alice would come to see them in their new home. November 6, 1951.

Typewritten letter from E. E. Dale thanking Alice for the sheet from the Dallas News regarding the story of John McGinnis. Spent 8 ½ months in Australia at the University of Melbourne. Leaving soon for a lecture trip at the Universities of Missouri, Illinois, Michigan and Ohio State as well as three other small colleges. In September he will be the visiting lecturer in history in Houston for the year. He really wanted to stay home and finish a book, but the money offered was too good to pass up. June 10, 1954.

Handwritten letter from E. E. Dale detailing a recent visit from Pat Hurley and the arrival of her letter catching him up on the news of the last three years. He is still teaching even though he retired in 1952, spending one year in Australia and two and a half years in Houston. He has published two books since his retirement and is working on two more, along with some magazine articles. Talks about her grade in none of his classes and the recent visit of her brother to their home. March 27, 1961.

Typewritten letter from E.E. Dale thanking Alice for a letter she wrote. Glad she enjoyed his Frontier Ways and that it brought back memories of her childhood. May 16, 1961.

14.

Typewritten letter to Alice apologizing for delay in answering her letter and saying he is deeply touched that she has kept all his letters over the years, as well as Pat Hurley’s. Enjoys her letters. Talks about his and Rosalie’s health, teaching at the University of Chicago and being thankful for their big home at OU. Rarely has time to read because of his writing and has been asked by Savoie Lottinville to read manuscripts or write introductions to and an old book being published. Talks about health issues, age and the growth of Norman and the size of the university population. Soon to go to Arkansas to visit his son and family. Handwritten note at the bottom of the letter about enjoying their trips to the farm as they have 53 baby pigs and calves, and lambs. October 7, 1964.

Typewritten letter thanking Alice for her Christmas greetings. He had a bad fall two or three months ago and was in the hospital for three weeks and spent a month or more recuperating at home. Talks about her being 72 and his taking a trip around the world at 75, still teaching at 80 in grand fashion. Reference to disposition of Pat Hurley’s letters, and reference to a new book coming out titled, The Cross Timbers: The Story of a North Texas Boyhood. January 5, 1965.

Typewritten letter from E.E. Dale apologizing for not answering her letter, but he is working on a manuscript. His old ulcer has slowed him down. Talks about old acquaintances, Georgia Shutt (Bartleson) and Malcomb Rosser, Sr. April 5, 1965.

Typewritten letter from E.E. Dale thanking Alice for Frances Rosser Brown’s address and her note. Talks about selling their home in Turner Falls and their home in Otter Creek. He encloses a picture of their current home. Names the people in the picture but is unsure of some of the people, indicating they were members of the I.T. Posse of Westerners that they entertained that day. April 14, 1965.

Handwritten letter from E. E. Dale talking about the ranch he inherited, his health, his office at the University and a part-time secretary. Mentions his children and grandchildren. October 25, 1967.

Handwritten letter from E.E. Dale thanking Alice for her Christmas letter. Talks about selling the log cabin at Turner Falls and the farm at Otter Creek. Repeats stories of “old” people and how young she is at 74. February 25, 1968.
Typewritten letter from E.E. Dale talking about losing many friends in the last few years but unless “old age sets in” he might be around for several more years. He is 2/3 through a sequel to Cross Timbers. May 16, 1968.

Typewritten letter from E.E. Dale regarding his health, had spent two weeks in the hospital due to diabetes. He has finished his second book of memoirs and it is to be published. Encloses a picture of the E.E. Dale Social Sciences Building. January 28, 1971.

Handwritten letter from Alice Mackey to E. E. Dale, quoting from Cross Timbers and compares the quote from his book with her childhood in the Indian Territory looking back from the age of 73. Mentions Dr. Hoffman’s visit to the Huntington Library and proposed visit to her in Ojai to discuss Pat Hurley’s papers. Goes on to mention book on Stillwell and turning Pat into a “non-person.” Talks about a new book on the Brownsville Raid in 1908. March 23, 1971.

Typewritten letter from E.E. Dale to Alice apologizing for the machine-made letter as his handwriting declines. Abraham must be the head of the Western History Collections. Responds to her fears of an enemy using Pat’s or her letters to write about him. His diabetes has worsened. He is proofreading his memoirs and has a book of poems that has been accepted by Whirlwind Press. Rosalie fell and broke her arm. September 1, 1971.

Handwritten letter from Rosalie Dale saying she should not be writing Alice today as she is so emotionally involved in Dale’s personal letters but that she must decide what to give the Western History Collections. Talks about his character and how difficult it is to go through everything, though it is also fun at times, remembering him. Talks about their children and visits to them as well as their grandchildren. Wonders if Alice will ever come to Norman and wishes she could visit as they both loved her for so long. February 18, 1972.

Note from Rosalie Dale enclosing a clipping she thought Alice might want to have. November 18, 1972.

Letter from Rosalie Dale hoping Alice is recovered from her eye surgery. She trusts the materials Alice asked for from the Western History Collections have been sent to her. Recounts a Regents meeting and the election of Dr. Zink as librarian. Still working on Dr. Dale’s papers but hasn’t accomplished much due to problems with high blood pressure. June 11, 1973.

Handwritten note from Rosalie Dale to Alice hoping she has recovered from her surgery and saying she had not heard from her for a long time. Recounts that Mary Sainsbury had visited the Western History Collections but that Mr. Haley had not seen her. Indicates that work is progressing on the collection now that they have more help as well as a librarian who is interested in the collection. November 5, 1973.
Handwritten letter from Rosalie Dale thanking Alice for clipping by Jack Smith. Talks about a tour my grandmother took, life in Norman and visiting her children. She is 81 now. Had 12 of her family for dinner Sunday. Wonders if Alice has Frontier Historian: The Life and Work of Edward Everett Dale. If not she will send a copy. Clipping on the book was enclosed with the letter. April 21, 1976.

Newspaper clipping about the life of E. E. Dale; and a photograph of Dale’s home at 920 Elm Street, Norman, Oklahoma. n.d.

Dale, Edward Everett, and Morris L. Wardell. Outline and References for Oklahoma History, 1924.

Typed list, “Books on the Cherokee Tribe.”

20. Family keepsakes: a crocheted collar and a lock of hair from Mary Ann Kelly Hurley (mother of Patrick Hurley) and a broken oval locket with a photograph of William Kelly. Also includes pins that belonged to Alice Hurley.

The Sooner Magazine, article “Honoring the Hurleys” by Frances Rosser Brown. 1931.

1934 Social Register of Dallas. Includes a listing for Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Marion Mackey.

24. A crucifix brought by Alice’s mother from Ireland in 1883. Includes handwritten note explaining related family history. (located on top of Box 2)

26. Typewritten letter from Victor M. Locke Jr. to Alice thanking her for the invitation to speak at the Oklahoma Historical Society at a dinner in his honor. He defers acceptance and goes on to talk about his own love of history and the civilization of the Five Civilized Tribes. Handwritten note at the bottom of the letter in Mary Mackey’s handwriting, “Was chief of the Choctaws and a friend of Uncle Pat’s (Hurley) when they were young.” October 4, 1932

Handwritten letter to Mary Mackey from Alice detailing a trip to the Choctaw Nation for the Indian Meeting, the first since 1906. Gives her feelings about the Choctaws and adds that Mrs. Archer (Dolly Locke Archer) sends her love. June 8, 1934

Typewritten letter to Alice from Dolly Archer mentioning the upcoming marriage of Mary Mackey. She also tells about the house fire of January 17th and how her house has been rebuilt twice in nine months. Dick (Victor Locke) has been sick much of the winter. She mentions friends, including Mamie Rosser and going out dining. She talks of growth in Pushmataha County and taking the bus to the country to visit family. She hopes they’ll be able to build an Episcopal Church in town and is working on that. Encloses letter dated March 18, 1941 addressed to Mary and Mr. Sainsbury wishing them well on their marriage. February 19, 1941

Typewritten letter to Alice from Victor M. Locke Jr., thanking Alice and Clifton for an announcement of Mary’s marriage and wishing the newlyweds the best. March 20, 1941

Typewritten letter to Alice from Dolly Archer mentioning Alice’s pregnancy. She talks about a visit from Nelson Locke of Chicago and that she likes him. Talks about Dick traveling the whiskey route and more on the building of the Episcopal Church in Antlers. Handwritten notes by Alice on Dolly and her family. May 27, 1941

Photographs of Dolly Archer taken by Clifton Mackey with notes on the back in Alice’s handwriting. Typewritten note by Alice explaining who Mrs. Archer was and some incidents that happened at her home. 1946

Printed acknowledgement note from the family of Victor Locke, Jr. acknowledging receipt of sympathy note on his death. The Pat in the handwritten note at the bottom by Alice refers to Patrick J. Hurley. n.d.

Typewritten letter to Alice from Walter Ferguson in response to a thank you note from Alice for allowing her to browse his Oklahoma Territory collection in his home in Tulsa. September 7, 1933

Typewritten letter to Alice from Lucia Ferguson declining an invitation for cocktails. Reference in a post script to article on Father Murrow. October 28, 1933

Typewritten letter to Alice from Ray O. Weems, State of Oklahoma Treasury Department regarding request of Walter Ferguson to ship a small wooden gavel carved from timbers used in the construction of buildings at the old Darlington Indian Agency in 1870 to Alice. Gavel was distributed to attendees of a banquet in Oklahoma City on January 31, 1933 at which time the Oklahoma Wildlife Council was organized. June 13, 1933

Typewritten note to Alice from Lucia Ferguson thanking Alice for entertaining her in Oklahoma City. Talks about the Campbells (Walter) and Joe (Brandt). Handwritten note at bottom by Alice, regarding Lucia’s family history in Oklahoma. March 18, 1934

Typewritten note to Alice from Lucia Ferguson thanking Alice for her letter and mentions their dinner together. She also compliments Alice on her article in the Chronicles of Oklahoma about Father Murrow. April 27, 1934

Typewritten letter to Alice from Walter Ferguson regarding Mrs. Highams of London who will be visiting Oklahoma City that weekend and suggesting Alice contact them. June 27, 1935

Handwritten note to Mary Mackey (at William & Mary) from Alice regarding Walter Ferguson’s funeral and how sad it was to see Lucia stricken with grief. March 13, 1936

Typewritten letter to Alice from Lucia Ferguson about Alice leaving Oklahoma City for Houston (Westinghouse promoted High). She recounts her difficult last eight months but that she is doing okay. December 4, 1936

Typewritten letter to Alice from Lucia Ferguson thanking Alice for her letter and talking about the war, her visit to Washington D.C., and speech being given to the Federated Club of Women in Fort Worth. Congratulates Hi on his promotion to Dallas. November 7, 1944

28. Part of a typewritten letter to Alice from Grant Foreman about Saturday Review of Literature and regional literary survey of the Southwest. Also references car accident of Joe Matthews. n.d. (reference to grandchild born June 19, 1945)

Typewritten letter to Alice from Grant Foreman thanking her for her appreciation of his work and enclosed (not attached) two circulars describing the Hitchcock Journal, a New York Times review of it along with a London Times Review of his Indians and Pioneers. He asks her to return the reviews and says he hopes to see her at the Oklahoma Historical Society meeting. March 22, 1932

Typewritten letter to Alice from Grant Foreman regarding missing her when she passed through Muskogee. Talks about correcting proof of his new book to be published in October and mentions research locations and events for his book. April 5, 1932
Typewritten letter to Alice from Grant Foreman apologizing for delay in his reply to her letter and he extends and invitation for her to call next time she is in Muskogee and he will be happy to look over her manuscript and discuss Oklahoma history. June 10, 1932

Typewritten letter to Alice from Grant Foreman regarding her review of his book, Indian Removal: The Emigration of the Five Civilized Tribes. He also writes that he is obliged to her planning to review his Hitchcock book again. August 27, 1932

Handwritten note to Mary Mackey from Carolyn Thomas Foreman congratulating her on her induction to the National Honor Society and her acceptance at William and Mary. June 1, 1935

Handwritten Christmas card to Alice from Carolyn Thomas Foreman that mentions honor paid to Pat Hurley (Ambassador to China) and talks about publication of Grant’s 18th book, The Last Trek of the Indians by Chicago University Press. Also mentions that the government has printed 80,000 copies of her book, Indians Abroad which was published by the University of Oklahoma Press in 1943. She is hearing accounts of the book from servicemen in Europe and the South Pacific. December 13, 1944

29. Handwritten Christmas greeting to High and Alice from Walter Campbell. n.d.

Typewritten letter to Alice from Walter Campbell thanking her for sending Doniphan’s Expedition manuscript to him. He hopes to find time to read it soon and enjoyed their last visit to Norman. December 3, 1932

Typewritten letter to Alice from Walter Campbell returning Doniphan’s Expedition manuscript with apologies for keeping it so long. He had made a copy and returned the original. March 28, 1933

Newspaper clipping from the Tulsa Daily World, July 2, 1933. Article on Stanley Vestal titled, “Adventure Tale Defended by University Professor” with photo of Vestal. July 2, 1933

Handwritten letter to Alice from Walter Campbell encouraging her to write and how he looks forward to her next performance. He went to New Orleans for a Rhodes Scholarship District election (he was a Rhodes Scholar) but was sadly disappointed by the importations from France on sale there and appalled at the prices demanded. January 22, 1934

Handwritten letter to High Mackey from Alice in Santa Fe, NM. Reveals that Isabel Campbell is working on a novel but doesn’t want to discuss things until they are in print. July 16, 1935
Handwritten letter to High Mackey from Alice in Santa Fe, NM. Says she invited the Campbells for waffles and had a pleasant evening. July 18, 1935

Handwritten letter to High Mackey from Alice in Santa Fe, NM. Invited Campbells for dinner. Will ride down to Las Vegas, NM with Isabel when she goes to pick up Walter who is lecturing in Albuquerque. Talks about upcoming cocktail party the Campbells are having for Alice and how they go the limit on food and drink. Refers to Isabel’s vile mood and short temper with the children the night before. July 23, 1935

Handwritten letter to High Mackey from Alice in Santa Fe, NM. Isabel complimented High as having the most perfect poise, always charming and gracious to everybody. Walter said High had one of the most discriminating tastes in food and drink he has ever seen. July 24, 1935

Typewritten letter to Alice from Isabel Campbell who was visiting Los Angeles that summer with her daughters. July 8, 1936

30. Typewritten letter to Alice from Isabel Campbell. She tells of her latest novel that she gave Dorothy Thomas to read who said it was bitter. Talks about a cabin Walter has built and their summer in New Mexico, the Moselys and the Burges. August 8, 1936

Handwritten letter to Mary Mackey from Alice. She has invited Malory Campbell to be the Mackey’s houseguest for the Province Convention (Pi Beta Phi) in Houston that June and to write Kathryn Bretch (friend of Mary’s) to be a guest too. Goes on to say not to mention that Isabel has left her husband and family and is living in Santa Fe. Walter wrote them that Isabel is sick and is sure she will be better in a couple of years. He is working full time writing, publishing and teaching and has full responsibility for rearing his two daughters and has not complained. “A great gentleman” according to Alice. February 11, 1939

Typewritten thank you to Mary Mackey from Walter Campbell for the invitation of Malory to Houston. He is flattered that Mary wishes to do a paper on him and his work and enclosed New Sources in Indian History. April 26, 1939

Professional Writing pamphlet by Walter Campbell, enclosure from letter to Mary dated April 26, 1939.

Typewritten autobiography of Walter Campbell, enclosure from letter to Mary dated April 26, 1939.

Typewritten review with handwritten note by Walter Campbell, “this is what my publisher says!” enclosure from letter to Mary dated April 26, 1939.
Typewritten professional biography of Walter Campbell enclosure from letter to Mary dated April 26, 1939.

Photograph taken by Mary Mackey at University of Oklahoma in front of the Pi Beta Phi house when Barbara Mackey pledged, features High Mackey, Walter Campbell, Barbara Mackey and Alice Mackey. September 1939

Handwritten letter to Mary Mackey from Alice Mackey, notes that Walter Campbell is dedicating his biography of Bigfoot Wallace to High and her. February 16, 1942

31. Typewritten letter to Alice and High from Walter Campbell asking how it feels to be grandparents, talks about the cold winter in Norman and that he expects to send his book Bigfoot Wallace to the publisher within a week or ten days. He asks permission to dedicate the book to them. January 1, 1942

Typewritten letter to High and Alice from Walter Campbell letting them know he is sending them the Bigfoot Wallace book and that he may skip out for the northern plains. His girls are in Santa Fe, Malory is doing war work and Dorothy is on a trip to San Francisco. July 20, 1942

Typewritten letter to Mary Mackey Sainsbury from Walter Campbell thanking her for sending the review of his book from the Los Angeles Times and congratulating her on the new baby. February 5, 1945

Handwritten letter to Mary Mackey Sainsbury from Alice Mackey in which she talks about her busy schedule and visitors including Walter Campbell and Dorothy Campbell with her two friends. February 8, 1945

Handwritten letter to Mary Mackey Sainsbury from Walter Campbell about his return from vacation in Canada. He is sending the snapshot she sent him on to Malory with a package. Malory is married now, and he will give Mary’s regards to Gladys, et al. September 9, 1946

Published article from the “Sooner Magazine” entitled, The Triumph of Stanley Vestal. Includes handwritten notes by High and Alice Mackey. n.d.

Newspaper clipping from unknown origin, review by Joseph Henry Jackson of The Book Lovers Southwest compilation by Walter Campbell. n.d.

Newspaper clipping from unknown origin, entitled “Rites in U.S. Cemetery set for Campbell” featuring details of funeral service for Walter Campbell to be held

32. Baccalaureate Program for Classen High School, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, 1934.

Senior Services Program for Classen High School, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, 1935.

Commencement Program for Classen High School, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, 1935.

Graduation announcement and invitation for the graduation of Mary Hurley Mackey from Classen High School, Oklahoma City, 1935.

33. Photo of Patrick Hurley, circa 1915.

Note to Alice Mackey from Ruth Hurley, thanking her for a book at Christmas.

Invitation to a dinner honoring Mr. and Mrs. Frank Phillips, at the University of Oklahoma, November 8, 1935.

Letter to Mary Hurley Mackey from her mother Martha, written while traveling in Russia, August 8, 1973.

34. Invitation to commencement exercises at the University of Oklahoma, 1914.

One black-and-white photograph of Mary Mackey Sainsbury, Barbara Mackey Ogilvie, and Malcolm E. Rosser, former justice on the Oklahoma Supreme Court, 1932.

Box 3
Folder:

Copy of handwritten letter from Pat Hurley to Alice Mackey, thanking her for helping him maintain a good reputation. October 17, 1912.

Fragment of a handwritten letter to Alice Mackey from unknown, thanking her for a photograph. December 3, 1920.
Handwritten letter to Alice Mackey from Ruth, thanking her for a gift. April 6, 1921.

Telegram from Pat Hurley to Alice Mackey, letting her know that the recent riots in Tulsa, OK had ended. June 3, 1921.

Handwritten letter to Alice Mackey from Ruth, letting her know how the baby is doing. March 17, 1923.

Typewritten letter to Alice Mackey from Pat Hurley, discussing Tom and Belle Starr. December 13, 1926.

Handwritten letter from High Mackey to Alice Mackey, discussing Pat Hurley and travel plans. July, 1927.

Handwritten letter from Ruth Hurley to Alice Mackey, asking her and her family to come visit her for Christmas. October 8, 1928.

Telegram from Pay Hurley to Clifton Mackey, expressing his desire for Mackey’s family to come visit for Christmas. December 19, 1928.

Typewritten letter from Alice Mackey to High Mackey, discussing family matters, and happenings around town while High is out of town. August 17, 1930.

Handwritten letter from Ruth Hurley to Alice Mackey, regarding a package she is mailing to Alice. September 15, 1930.

Handwritten letter from Ada Chapman Wilson to Alice Mackey, discussing family events. April 10, 1931.

Typewritten letter from Patrick Hurley to Mary Hurley Mackey, giving her advice on life and education upon her graduation from grammar school. May 25, 1931.

Handwritten letter from Ruth Hurley to Alice Mackey, letting her know that she misses her and that the family is proud of her. June 1, 1931.

Telegram from Patrick Hurley to Alice Mackey, letting her know that he will be visiting her on Friday. June 3, 1931.

Typewritten letter from Patrick Hurley to Alice Mackey, stating there is a deed to a house for her enclosed, as well as discussing family and money matters. October 30, 1931.
Handwritten letter from Mrs. Grant Foreman to Alice Mackey, thanking her for a picture and letter. December 6, 1931.

Typewritten letter from Alice Mackey to Patrick Hurley, giving a transcription of the introduction of Gabe E. Parker at the Tulsa Historical Society. February 8, 1932.

Typewritten letter to Alice Mackey from unknown person at the War Department, discussing a cartoon he enclosed, as well as her brother, Patrick Hurley’s work. February 11, 1932. (2 copies)

3. Telegram from Ruth Hurley to Alice Mackey, letting her know that August 13-16 would be a good time to visit. July 19, 1933.

Handwritten letter from Ruth Hurley to Alice Mackey, discussing their children and an upcoming visit. July 19, 1933.

Typewritten letter from Patrick Hurley to Alice Mackey, discussing Mary’s disposition and that he feels good about her frankness. October 8, 1934.

Typewritten letter from Patrick Hurley to Alice Mackey, discussing his work with the Office of Indian Affairs. March 14, 1935.

Typewritten letter from Patrick Hurley to Alice Mackey, letting her know that he believes Mary Mackey will enjoy college at William and Mary. Also enclosed is a letter from Charles J. Duke of William and Mary, to Wilbur C. Hall. May 15, 1935.

Handwritten letter from Patrick Hurley to Mary Hurley Mackey, discussing money and how he wished to help her pay for college at William and Mary. September 2, 1935.

Typewritten letter from Patrick Hurley to Mary Hurley Mackey, thanking her for her monthly budget that she sent him, as well as advice on joining a sorority. October 1, 1935.

Typewritten letter from Patrick Hurley to Mary Hurley Mackey, giving her advice to not go on dates off campus, but to maintain a strict amount of time studying and worry about her social life after her freshman year is over. November 30, 1935.

Typewritten letter from Patrick Hurley to Mary Hurley Mackey, letting her know he cares about her, but was not trying to scold or reprimand her in the previous letter. December 5, 1935.
Typewritten letter from Patrick Hurley to Alice Mackey, describing the events and balls that her daughter Mary had attended over the holiday break. January 7, 1936.

4. Typewritten letter from Patrick Hurley to Alice Mackey, discussing Mary Mackey’s illness and her inclination to over-work herself at school. May 5, 1937.

Typewritten letter from Patrick Hurley to Alice Mackey, thanking her for the Christmas present, and discussing family matters. February 5, 1938.

Typewritten letter from Patrick Hurley to Nan, telling her about all his children and their activities. November 2, 1938.

Typewritten letter from Patrick Hurley to Mary Mackey, telling her he has received her letters, but has been out of town almost all fall. November 25, 1938.

Typewritten letter from Patrick Hurley to Mary Mackey, congratulating her from graduating from the University of Texas. November 22, 1939.

Typewritten letter from Patrick Hurley to Mary Mackey, telling her about Patricia Hurley’s engagement to Dr. Henry Beall Gwynn, and asking about an author named Mumford Jones. February 13, 1940.

Typewritten letter from Patrick Hurley to Mary Mackey, letting her know he is behind her decision in the choice of a boyfriend. December 28, 1940.

Typewritten letter from Patrick Hurley to Mary Mackey, congratulating her for her engagement to Charles Forrest Sainsbury. January 17, 1941.

Handwritten letter from Ruth Hurley to Alice Mackey, congratulating her on her daughter Mary’s wedding, and letting her know that Ruth and Pat would like to send a gift of a set of silver flatware. March, 1941.

Typewritten letter from Patrick Hurley to Mary Mackey, congratulating her on her marriage. April 7, 1941.

5. Typewritten letter from the secretary of Patrick Hurley to Mary Mackey Sainsbury, letting her know that Hurley is on active duty and isn’t able to respond to letters. November 21, 1941.

Telegram from Patrick Hurley to Alice Mackey, letting her know he has phoned and will phone again when he gets to California. January 18, 1942.

Telegram from Patrick Hurley to Alice Mackey, letting her know he will phone when he arrives in California. January 18, 1942.
Telegram from U.S. Air Force General James H. Doolittle to the employees of Adel Precision Products Corporation, describing the performance of that company’s bombers in Japan. May 21, 1942.

Typewritten letter from Patrick Hurley to Alice Mackey, describing his attitudes about his work as a diplomat in New Zealand. June 3, 1942.

Typewritten letter from Grant Foreman to Alice Mackey, thanking her for newspaper clippings regarding Patrick Hurley’s service in New Zealand. June 19, 1942.

Typewritten letter from Alice Mackey to her husband Clifton Marion (High) Mackey, discussing family matters. September 20, 1942.

Handwritten letter from “M” to Mary Mackey Sainsbury, regarding daily activities and thoughts regarding Patrick Hurley. September 29, 1942.

Handwritten letter from Col. M. L. Crimmins to Alice Mackey, thanking her for a letter, and discussing his work. October 16, 1942.

Typewritten letter from Patrick Hurley to Mary Mackey Sainsbury, congratulating her on her son, as well as noting the importance of her husband’s work for the war. February 16, 1943.

6. Typewritten letter from Lucille Carter to Alice Mackey, telling her about Hurley’s travels and new home, as well as telling how good it is to work for him. November 12, 1943.

Typewritten letter from Savoie Lottinville to Alice Mackey, thanking her for some clippings, and telling her about his wife Rita. December 2, 1943.

Handwritten letter from Martha E McPherson to Alice Mackey, thanking her for the Christmas greeting and telling her about her family and life. December 24, 1943.

Telegram from Alice Mackey to Mary Mackey Sainsbury, letting her know that Uncle Pat has come to visit. March 8, 1944.

Typewritten letter from Savoie Lottinville to Alice Mackey, thanking her for a clipping, and telling her about his children. May 10, 1944.

Typewritten letter from Mrs. Walter Ferguson to Alice Mackey, asking about her medical condition and upcoming surgery. June 1, 1944.

Typewritten letter from Patrick Hurley to Alice Mackey, inquiring about an editorial he sent her, and telling her about his family’s recent activities. July 7, 1944.

Typewritten letter from Lucille Carter to Alice Mackey, thanking her for a news clipping, and telling her about seeing General Hurley on a newsreel at the movies. October 9, 1944.

Typewritten letter from Savoie Lottinville to Alice Mackey, thanking her for a news clipping, and congratulating her on her husband’s new job in the Dallas, TX area. October 13, 1944.

Typewritten letter from Louis Mountbatten to Patrick Hurley, congratulating him on his achievements in China. November 14, 1944.

Typewritten letter from Lucille Carter to Mary Hurley Sainsbury, letting her know about the Hurley family’s Christmas plans and whereabouts. November 27, 1944.

Typewritten letter from Patrick Hurley to Alice Mackey, discussing their mother’s recent death, and thanking her for the Christmas gifts. February 17, 1945.

(2 copies)

Typewritten minutes from Patrick Hurley to Alice Mackey, from the Oklahoma Historical Society’s honoring of General Patrick Hurley. April 20, 1945.

Typewritten address from Patrick Hurley to Alice Mackey, given by Chiang Kai-Shek in Chungking, China, honoring General Hurley. April, 1945.

Typewritten letter from Savoie Lottinville to Alice and High Mackey, letting them know he will be down with his wife Rita to visit in a few weeks. October 19, 1945.

Typewritten letter from Savoie Lottinville to Alice Mackey, discussing Patrick Hurley, and Alice’s decision to write a book about him. April 1, 1946.

Handwritten note to and from unknown, discussing Patrick Hurley and World War II. January 5, 1947.

Typewritten letter from Charlotte Beall to Alice Mackey, discussing Patrick Hurley’s return to the office, as well as the state of his house in Washington, D.C. January 9, 1947.

Typewritten letter from Patrick Hurley to Alice Mackey, telling her he has signed the property release she sent him to sign, and that he will greatly enjoy the St. Thomas Aquinas books she has sent him. January 13, 1947.
Handwritten letter from Alice Mackey to C. M. “High” Mackey, letting him know what has been happening at home while he is away. February 26, 1947.

Typewritten letter from Savoie Lottinville to Alice and High Mackey, letting them know about a new book that the University of Oklahoma Press is publishing entitled “Maya Explorer”, by Victor W. von Hagen. September 25, 1947.

Typewritten letter from Patrick Hurley to Alice Mackey, telling her about he and his wife’s car trip from Texas to California in snow and sleet, as well as thanking her for her hospitality as he was visiting in Dallas. February 6, 1948. (2 copies)

Typewritten letter from Patrick Hurley’s secretary, Wilma Pickert, to Alice Mackey, letting her know that Hurley will attend the SMU Sigma Chi installation in Dallas, but that the news of his travel should remain confidential until after his visit. March 30, 1948.

Typewritten letter from William B. Ruggles to Alice Mackey, giving her an article from the Associated Press regarding Patrick Hurley that he was unable to print in his newspaper, the Dallas Morning News. September 29, 1948.

Typewritten letter from William B. Ruggles to Alice Mackey, expressing that he hopes Patrick Hurley will be elected to the Senate in New Mexico. October 18, 1948.

Typewritten letter from Patrick Hurley to Alice Mackey, in which he discusses a book called “God’s Englishman”, by Baldwin, as well as discussing his feelings regarding the BBC. September 14, 1949.

Typewritten letter from Patrick Hurley to Oklahoma Governor Roy Turner, in regard to a collection of Major General Whipple, who was killed in the Civil War. Hurley discusses how he thinks the collection should be preserved and where it should be held. October 6, 1949.

Typewritten letter from E.E. Dale to Patrick Hurley, giving his opinion on where the Whipple collection should be kept, also information on the Phillips collection at OU and its trustees, Dale, Hurley, and Cross. November 4, 1949.

Typewritten letter from Roy Turner to Patrick Hurley, thanking him for his interest in helping find a place for the Whipple collection, but also noting that the original request for the manuscripts came from the Oklahoma Historical Society. November 9, 1949.

Typewritten letter from E.E. Dale to Patrick Hurley, regarding the Whipple collections status, and assuring Hurley that he would be fine with it going to the Historical Society. Also, he lets Hurley know that he very much wishes for him to come visit the Phillips collection at the University of Oklahoma. November 18, 1949.

Typewritten letter from Patrick Hurley’s secretary, Winifred Earl, to Alice Mackey, letting her know that Professor Dale at the University of Oklahoma wishes her to write, and enclosing correspondence from Hurley regarding the Whipple collection. November 22, 1949.

Typewritten letter from Arvard Hudson to Patrick Hurley, asking permission to call the new Hospital in Coalgate, Oklahoma, the “Hurley Hospital”. April 18, 1950.

Typewritten letter from Patrick Hurley to Arvard Hudson, responding positively to the request to name the new Coalgate hospital after him, but also asking to consider naming it after Hurley’s mother instead, for she died an early death common of a pioneer woman with no community medical service such as a hospital. April 24, 1950.

Typewritten letter from Patrick Hurley to Sister Mary Aloysius “Nan”, discussing war, politics, and his family. He gives descriptions of his children and their families, as well as discussing the possibility of a World War III. July 26, 1950.

Typewritten letter from Patrick Hurley to Alice Mackey, discussing books he has been reading, the upcoming marriage of his son Wilson, an emotional presentation he was given as he was inducted into the Hall of Fame at the Oklahoma Historical Society, and his plans for improving the stones at their rents and siblings graves. March 23, 1951.

Typewritten letter from High Mackey to Patrick Hurley, discussing he and Alice’s futile attempts at getting the Hurley family graves improved. April 13, 1951.

Typewritten letter from Patrick Hurley to High Mackey, discussing his friend Touche O’Hara, and his place in taking care of the Hurley graves as an excuse to provide him with a monthly stipend of living money. Also, Hurley lets High know about Wilson’s wedding plans and that the Mackey’s are invited. April 16, 1951.

Typewritten letter from Patrick Hurley to High Mackey, expressing his concern about Alice’s upcoming operation, but assuring High that he believes she will recover well. September 21, 1955.

Typewritten letter from Patrick Hurley to High Mackey, asking if Alice’s operation had been completed, and if so, how it went. October 17, 1955.
Typewritten letter from Patrick Hurley to General and Mrs. Albert C. Wedemeyer, letting them know that he and Ruth will not be able to attend a reception in New York on November 9. November 2, 1955.

Typewritten letter from Patrick Hurley to Alice Mackey, saying that he is glad her operation went well and thanking her for a clipping. November 3, 1955.

Typewritten letter from Patrick Hurley to General Albert C. Wedemeyer, showing his regret that he and Ruth cannot attend the Mountbatten’s reception, and then discussing Harry Truman’s autobiography and the mention of General Wedemeyer within it. November 3, 1955.

Typewritten letter from Patrick Hurley to Alice Mackey, discussing an article which she sent him, entitled “Doomed Daredevils of the Irish Republican Army”. He also gives his opinion on Irish freedom, and England’s Anglo-Saxons. November 21, 1955.

Typewritten letter from Patrick Hurley to Alice Mackey, discussing their Irish family, the Hurley’s of Waterford County. He also notes that their family is separate from the O’Hurley family of Cork County, Ireland. February 16, 1956.

Typewritten letter from Patrick Hurley to Alice Mackey, expressing his desire to visit Alice and High in Hawaii, letting her know about the birth of his newest grandchild, and discussing the use of family names in he and Alice’s children and grandchildren. September 5, 1957.

Typewritten letter from Patrick Hurley to Alice Mackey, expressing his sadness upon hearing of High Mackey’s death. He tells Alice of her strength, and her wisdom in calling her nephew, Wilson, to help with the estate. February 12, 1958.

Typewritten letter from Patrick Hurley to Alice Mackey, recalling a memory of Will Rogers, and letting her know that she can visit whenever in convenient for her. February 16, 1960.

Typewritten letter from Patrick Hurley’s secretary, Barbara Nunlist, to Alice Mackey, letting her know that General Hurley is out of town for a while, and that she hopes the rain in California isn’t causing Alice’s family any trouble. February 12, 1962.

Typewritten letter from Patrick Hurley to Mary Mackey Sainsbury, telling her that he appreciated her and her daughter’s visit, and that he hopes her children can visit him again in New Mexico sometime. August 17, 1962. (2 copies)

Handwritten letter from Ruth Hurley to Mary Mackey Sainsbury, thanking her for the telegram sent upon hearing of Patrick Hurley’s death. August 27, 1963.
Handwritten letter from Father Pat R. Schieker to Alice Mackey, giving her reassurance that Pat is with the Lord, and that he will be around to visit Ruth. October 4, 1963.

Typewritten letter from Barbara to Alice Mackey, discussing what it was like to be Patrick Hurley’s secretary, as well as remembering Ruth Hurley and the rest of the Hurley family. January 10, 1966.

Typewritten letter from Jack Haley of the University of Oklahoma Western History Collections to Alice Mackey, letting her know of the opportunity to donate materials relating to Patrick Hurley to the collections in the library. He also tells of visiting with Hurley before his death and surveying his papers. October 30, 1968.

Handwritten letter from Alice Mackey to Mary Mackey Sainsbury, discussing Patrick Hurley’s trips to Australia, as well as the recent democratic convention on the television. July 17, 1972.

Typewritten letter from W.R. Lancaster, Director of the Australian War Memorial, to Mary Mackey Sainsbury, giving information on the dates and locations of Patrick Hurley and General MacArthur’s time in Australia. August 4, 1972.

Handwritten letter from Kay Sny, Administrative Secretary of Alpine Manor nursing care center, to Alice Mackey, giving a description of the health of Alice’s sister, Miss Hurley. May 7, 1973.

Typewritten letter from John Ezell, Curator of the Western History Collections, to Alice Mackey, discussing her donation of Patrick Hurley papers to the library. June 20, 1975.

Typewritten letter from Donald DeWitt, Curator of the Western History Collections, to Mary Mackey Sainsbury, thanking her for photographs she sent to the Hurley collection, as well as discussing other photographs of Hurley’s that she may wish to donate. March 1, 1988.

Typewritten letter from Donald DeWitt, Curator of the Western History Collections, to Barbara Mackey Ogilvie, acknowledging receipt of the Clifton and Alice Mackey papers, as well as discussion of the lifting of a restriction on the collection. June 30, 1988.
Typewritten letter from Donald DeWitt, Curator of the Western History Collections, to Mary Mackey Sainsbury, thanking her for the signed Deed of Gift, as well mention of other photographs that could be added to the Hurley photograph collection. April 28, 1989.

Typewritten letter from Donald DeWitt, Curator of the Western History Collections, to Mary Mackey Sainsbury, thanking her for the photographs sent to be added to the Hurley collection. August 8, 1989.

13. Handwritten letter from Sister Mary Aloysius to “Jack”, describing how much she and the family miss him. n.d.

Handwritten letter from John F. Hurley to Mary Aloysius, telling her about how the family is doing. n.d.

Handwritten letter from Mary Mackey to her parents, describing her trip to visit her Uncle Pat and Aunt Ruth, as well as her plans for attending a reception at the White House over the Christmas break. n.d. (cir. 1935-1938)

Handwritten letter from Josephine Hurley to Mary Mackey, describing a gift of a hat sent to Mary by Ruth Hurley. n.d.

Handwritten letter from Ruth Hurley to Alice Mackey, regarding a trip Alice may take to visit them in the summer, and a book Pat is to write about Oklahoma. n.d.

Handwritten letter from Ruth Hurley to Alice Mackey, thanking her for gifts she has sent, and telling about their recent Christmas activities. n.d.

Handwritten letter from Ada Chapman Wilson to Mary Mackey, congratulating her for doing well in school, and regarding the Wilson’s trip to Washington D.C. n.d.

Typewritten letter from Patrick Hurley to Alice Mackey, expressing excitement for her upcoming visit, as well as possibly collaborating on a book. n.d.

14. Two small Christmas greeting cards sent to Alice Mackey. n.d.

Third annual yearbook of the Junior Ready-To-Help Club, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, 1934-1935.

Booklet, Merry Maid Club’s Annual May Dance. May 28, 1935. Oklahoma City, OK.

Booklet, Merry Maid Club’s Christmas Dance. December 27, 1934. Oklahoma City, OK.

Invitation to the Junior-Senior reception for Classen High School, May 17.

Menu and programme, National Honor Society. n.d.

Program and memory book of the 7th Annual Banquet of the Comets Pep Club, honoring the Classen High School football team. December 17, 1934.

Program for “The Passport to Paradise”, presented by the Senior High Girls of Classen High School, May 5, 1934.

Invitation card for reception in honor of Patricia Hurley, June 17.

Typewritten quote regarding Patrick Hurley from the American Legion Magazine, April 1947.

15. Two scrapbooks belonging to Mary Mackey, including school programs, ticket stubs, papers, and other memorabilia.

Program, “Old Settlers Day” at the Oklahoma Free State Fair, September 30, 1924.

Article mentioning Patrick Hurley, from Time, Vol. XX, No. 6, August 8, 1932.
The Saturday Review of Literature, Vol XXV, No. 20. Includes article by Frank Dobie, and other writings regarding the southwestern U.S. May 16, 1942.

Short article regarding Patrick Hurley, from Time magazine, March 15, 1943.

Short article mentioning Patrick Hurley, from Time magazine, October 11, 1943.

Magazine clipping with picture of Patrick Hurley, unknown source, October 31, 1944.

Picture and article mentioning Patrick Hurley in China, Time magazine, December 4, 1944. (2 copies)

Article mentioning an encounter between Patrick Hurley and Stalin, from This Week magazine, January 28, 1945.

Short article mentioning Patrick Hurley in regards to President Roosevelt, from Time magazine, April 23, 1945.

Short article mentioning Patrick Hurley in regards to President Roosevelt, from The American Mercury, May 1945.

Article describing Patrick Hurley’s life and his work as an ambassador to China, from Look magazine, May 1, 1945.

Excerpt of article regarding government in China, Time magazine, September 3, 1945.

Excerpt of article regarding foreign governments in Russia, Liechtenstein, and China, from Time magazine, September 17, 1945.

Press release regarding Patrick Hurley’s resignation as Ambassador to China, November 27, 1945.

Excerpts from an address by Patrick Hurley before the National Press Club at Washington. November 28, 1945.

Article regarding war in China, Time magazine, December 10, 1945.

Article about the war, mentioning Patrick Hurley, Time magazine, December 10, 1945. (2 copies)

The China Monthly: The truth about China, January 1946.

Article regarding Communist armies in China, from Time magazine, March 4, 1945.

Foreign News section regarding Japan, China, and India, from Time magazine, January 14, 1946.

National affairs section of Time magazine, March 11, 1946.

Address of Patrick J. Hurley at the Republican State Convention, Albuquerque, NM, April 4, 1946.

Editorial from Life magazine, entitled “Why Kid Around? There is no “Misunderstanding” between Russia and the West. There is a conflict”. May 27, 1946.

Campaign card for Patrick J. Hurley for U.S. Senator, with brief notes on Hurley. April, 1947.

Minister’s Statement to the House of Representatives, Australian Consulate General. February 26, 1947.

Article with picture of Patrick Hurley, Time magazine, March 22, 1948.

Notes of Patrick J. Hurley, in debate with Honorable Clinton Anderson at Los Alamos, New Mexico, July 25, 1948.

Excerpts from “General Eisenhower’s Own Story”, as published in an installment in the Los Angeles Examiner, November 8, 1948.

“Causes of America’s failure in China”, by Patrick J. Hurley, before the Georgetown University Foreign Service school, March 3, 1949. (2 copies)

Article regarding the city of Leesburg, VA, from the Saturday Evening Post, May 5, 1951.

Comic Book style narrative entitled “Yalta to Korea”, distributed by the Republican National Committee, 1952.

Typescript of article, General Pat Hurley dies- Outstanding Career Ends, July 31, 1963. (2 copies)

Brief obituary of Patrick Hurley, from Time magazine, August 9, 1953.

Notes regarding Hurley from various sources, 1971.

Mention of Patrick Hurley in “Poem from the day” by Louis Albert Banks. From the Roseburg News Review, date unknown.
Senate 3645, regarding Indian tribes and lands. Date unknown.

Resolution by the Coal County Pat Hurley committee, commending and endorsing General Patrick J. Hurley. Date unknown.

Magazine article regarding the U.S.S.R., date unknown.

Article regarding China and Patrick Hurley’s resignation as ambassador. Date unknown.

Biography of the John Alfred Hyden family, date unknown.

Cartoon drawing of Patrick J. Hurley, by Ralph Faulkner, presented to the Oklahoma Historical Society, date unknown.

Picture from Life magazine, Albert C. Wedemeyer, Chiang Kai-shek, and Patrick Hurley. Date unknown.

Photocopies of pictures of Patrick Hurley with political leaders, date unknown.

Booklet entitled “Here’s what they say about Patrick J. Hurley.” Date unknown.

Campaign pamphlet for Patrick J. Hurley, republican candidate for United States Senator for New Mexico. Date unknown.

Campaign sign “Hurley for U.S. Senator.” Date unknown.

Campaign sign, “Pat Hurley for U.S. Senator”, with picture. Date unknown.

Scrap paper with notes regarding Patrick Hurley, date unknown.

Items regarding Patrick Hurley’s brother, William, including a copy of William’s death certificate and cemetery information. Date unknown.

Photocopy of a picture of a race horse named Zev, who lived at Patrick Hurley’s estate in Virginia. Date unknown.

Photocopy of picture of Patrick Hurley in old age, with notes regarding Hurley on reverse. Date unknown.

Newspaper article announcing Patrick Hurley’s visit back home to Tulsa, from the Tulsa World, 1917.

Newspaper article discussing payments to Choctaws by the government, from the Tulsa World, May 31, 1917.

Newspaper article, regarding Colonel Douglas’s comments regarding Patrick Hurley, from the Muskogee Daily Phoenix, March 22, 1929.

Picture of Patrick Hurley’s airplane flying over a canal, from the New York Times, November 1929.

Picture of Patrick Hurley awarding a diploma to Paul F. Yount, from the Sunday Star, June 22, 1930.

Brief mention of Patrick J. Hurley in short article, June 23, 1930.

Newspaper article regarding Alice Mackey’s visit to Coalgate, OK, from an El Paso newspaper, 1931.

Newspaper article regarding a boat named the Patrick J Hurley, from the Christian Science Monitor, January 16, 1931.

Newspaper clipping mentioning a rumor that Patrick Hurley is a potential running-mate for President Hoover. February 2, 1931.

Newspaper article announcing a visit by Patrick Hurley, from the Arkansas Democrat, April 26, 1931.

Newspaper article regarding Patrick Hurley’s decision to not run for vice-president. June 6, 1931.

Newspaper article regarding a claim to mine in a Virginia battlefield, which Patrick Hurley must either approve or reject. February 3, 1932.

Newspaper article discussing Patrick Hurley’s life, from the Daily Oklahoman. August 29, 1934.

Newspaper article regarding Patrick Hurley’s comments at a War Arms Hearing, from the Evening Star, March 13, 1935.

Newspaper article mentioning Patrick Hurley in relation to Herbert Hoover and San Juan Hill. July 22, 1935.
Newspaper article discussing Patrick Hurley’s years as an athlete at Bacone College in Oklahoma. March 20, 1940.

Newspaper articles regarding J. Frank Dobie, various sources, 1940.

Newspaper article announcing the temporary appointment of Patrick Hurley as Brigadier General, from the New York Times, January 21, 1942.

Newspaper article regarding Patrick Hurley in war service, from the Houston Post, January 21, 1942.

Newspaper article regarding Patrick Hurley’s life and career, from the Washington Post, February 28, 1943.

Newspaper article discussing Patrick Hurley’s jobs on the war front, from the Houston Post, March 14, 1943.

Newspaper article regarding Patrick Hurley’s job during WWII, with pictures, from the Daily Oklahoman, September 12, 1943. (2 copies)

Newspaper article discussing Patrick Hurley and his meeting with President Truman regarding China. 1944.

Newspaper article discussing an account that Patrick Hurley gave of being wounded by a bomb fragment, from the Oklahoma City Times, March 8, 1944.

Newspaper articles written by Drew Pearson regarding Patrick Hurley, 1944.

Newspaper clipping announcing Patrick Hurley’s arrival in Chungking, September 6, 1944.

Newspaper article regarding Patrick Hurley’s appointment as the U.S. ambassador to China, November 27, 1944.

Newspaper editorial regarding Patrick Hurley’s appointment as an ambassador, from the Washington Times Herald, November 28, 1944.

Newspaper article regarding Patrick Hurley’s military career, from the Washington D.C. Star, November 28, 1944.

Newspaper article describing Patrick Hurley as a good choice as ambassador to China, November 29, 1944.
Newspaper article outlining some of Patrick Hurley’s accomplishments, from the Oklahoma City Times, November 29, 1944.

Newspaper article discussing Patrick Hurley’s involvement in U.S. Senate committees, 1945.

Newspaper article giving Patrick Hurley’s comments regarding China as a courageous country, from the New York Sun, January 8, 1945.

Newspaper article regarding China’s war production increase, January 26, 1945.

Newspaper article giving Patrick Hurley’s thoughts on a Chinese Communist party request for U.S. arms and military equipment, from the China Monthly, May 1945.

Newspaper article speculating on Patrick Hurley’s resignation as ambassador to China, from the New York World-Telegram, September 20, 1945.

Newspaper article discussing Patrick Hurley’s year long stay as the ambassador to China, and the results of it, from the Washington D.C. News, October 12, 1945.

Newspaper article giving accounts of Chinese leaders awaiting Patrick Hurley’s return, from the Santa Fe New Mexican, November 2, 1945.

Newspaper article outlining Patrick Hurley’s successes in China, from the Santa Fe New Mexican, November 2, 1945.

Newspaper article describing political issues in China and Japan, November 14, 1945.

Newspaper picture of Patrick Hurley meeting with Secretary of State James F. Byrne, October 13, 1945.

Newspaper article regarding the criticism by James Byrnes of Patrick Hurley, from the Los Angeles Daily News, November 28, 1945.

Newspaper article regarding James Byrnes labeling of Patrick Hurley as a betrayer, from the Los Angeles Daily News, November 28, 1945.

Newspaper article quoting Patrick Hurley saying that U.S. career diplomats had hindered his efforts in China by siding with the Chinese communist government, from the Los Angeles Daily News, November 30, 1945.

Newspaper articles regarding Patrick Hurley’s resignation as ambassador and reasons for it. St Louis Globe-Democrat, December 1, 1945.
Newspaper article regarding controversy surrounding politics in China, from the Los Angeles Daily News, December 5, 1945.

Newspaper editorial cartoon featuring Patrick Hurley, and criticizing U.S. Foreign Policy, from the Dallas Times Herald, December 11, 1945.

Newspaper article quoting Patrick Hurley saying that the U.S. is being drawn into a power block against Russia, from the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, February 8, 1946.

Newspaper article regarding Joseph A. Brandt and the University of Oklahoma Press, March 3, 1946.

Newspaper article regarding a controversial report urging stricter attitudes by the U.S. towards Russia. June 27, 1946.

Newspaper article noting Patrick Hurley’s denouncement of U.S. foreign policy, August, 1946.

Newspaper article regarding a surprise horse ride taken by Patrick Hurley at the Colfax County Fair, September 28, 1946.

Newspaper clipping featuring a picture of Mrs. Patrick Hurley looking at a portrait of her husband, from the Santa Fe New Mexican, December 21, 1946.

Newspaper article regarding U.S. Senator Vandenberg and Secretary of State Mr. Byrnes, and their travel, from the Times Herald, December 23, 1946.

Newspaper article reporting that Patrick Hurley will be speaking at the Dallas Public Affairs Luncheon, from the Dallas Morning News, January 18, 1948. (2 copies)

Newspaper article describing Patrick Hurley’s reunion with his long lost brother Billy, from the Dallas Morning News, April 3, 1948.

Newspaper article outlining the national importance of Patrick Hurley’s campaign for the Senate, from the Associated Press, September 27, 1948.

Newspaper article announcing the suppression of the Marshall directive, involving the fall of China to communism, from the Dallas Herald, August 12, 1949.
Newspaper article detailing Patrick Hurley’s criticism of the state departments actions regarding China, October 1949.

Newspaper editorial on China and politics, mentions Patrick Hurley, from the Times Herald, January 17, 1950.

Newspaper article giving comments by Patrick Hurley regarding Secretary of State Dean Acheson, from the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, February 1, 1950.

Newspaper article agreeing with Hurley’s viewpoint of the State Department, from the Dallas Morning News, February 1, 1950.

Newspaper article outlining the dramatic career of Patrick Hurley, January 21, 1951.

Newspaper article describing an attack on Patrick Hurley by and unknown man, from the Houston Chronicle, April 1, 1951.

Newspaper article quoting Patrick Hurley saying a British Oil Company in Iran was being greedy, June 21, 1951.

Newspaper article reporting on Patrick Hurley’s dislike of U.S. “secret diplomacy”, December 5, 1951.

Newspaper article regarding the honoring of Thomas E. Braniff, Dallas airline president and friend of Patrick Hurley, December 7, 1951.

Newspaper article reporting that Patrick Hurley believes a recent invasion of South Korea by China is “merely a feint”, from the Dallas Morning News, February 19, 1952.

Newspaper article announcing Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Hurley’s visit to their new grandchild in Washington D.C., from the Houston Chronicle, December 1953.

Newspaper article regarding Patrick Hurley and a controversial Senate vote, from the North Star, March 25, 1954.

Newspaper article announcing the firing of John Foster Dulles as counselor of embassy in Peru, November 15, 1954.

Newspaper book review for “Queen of Cowtowns, Dodge City”, by Stanley Vestal, from 1957.
Newspaper article announcing Patrick Hurley’s donation of land for a park in Sane Fe, NM, from the El Paso Times, August 1958.

Newspaper article showing and discussion the USS Wilson, a missile destroyer, from the Bay City Times, April 22, 1959.

Newspaper article and picture regarding Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Hurley’s life and family, from March 1963.

Thirteen newspaper articles regarding the death of Patrick Hurley, from numerous newspapers, July 31, 1963 - August 1963.

Newspaper article outlining the history of the Belmont plantation in Leesburg, Virginia, where Patrick Hurley once lived, from the Washington Post, October 1, 1968. (2 copies)

Newspaper article regarding Premier Chou En-lai of China, from the Los Angeles Herald-Examiner, August 10, 1971.

Newspaper article regarding Communist and Nationalist China, from the Los Angeles Herald-Examiner, October 27, 1971.

Newspaper article describing the last attempt of the U.S. to bringing peace to China, from the San Francisco Examiner and Chronicle, February 13, 1972.

Newspaper editorial regarding the U.S. State Department, from the Los Angeles Times, February 23, 1972.

Extensive newspaper article detailing Patrick Hurley’s life and career, from the Muskogee Daily Phoenix, May 4, 1972.

Newspaper article announcing Nationalist China’s leader having had a heart attack, from the Los Angeles Times, April 6, 1975.

Newspaper article regarding the charisma of Chinese leader Chou En-lai, from the Los Angeles Times, January 14, 1976.

Newspaper article regarding a mysterious statue in the Santa Fe National Cemetery, where Patrick Hurley is buried. May 12, 1985. (2 copies)

22. Newspaper article announcing the upcoming visit of Patrick Hurley to Fort Bliss. n.d.
Newspaper article describing a meeting and discussion between Patrick Hurley and Secretary of War Stimson. n.d.

Newspaper article, printing a letter written by Mary Mackey, telling of her visit with her uncle Patrick Hurley to a reception at the White House. n.d.

Newspaper letter to the editor by Patrick Hurley, telling about horse riding. n.d.

Newspaper article telling a legend about Russians asking Patrick Hurley to give them a Choctaw yell. n.d.

Newspaper photo and caption regarding Miss Mary Mackey, Patrick Hurley’s niece. n.d.

Newspaper article and photo regarding Sister Mary Aloysius of Denver, Patrick Hurley’s sister. n.d.

Newspaper photo and caption of General Douglas MacArthur and Patrick Hurley. n.d.

Newspaper clipping regarding Patrick Hurley and Joseph Stilwell in China. n.d.

Four newspaper articles regarding Patrick Hurley’s resignation as ambassador to China. n.d.

Newspaper editorial by Marquis Childs, criticizing Patrick Hurley’s work as ambassador to China. n.d.

Newspaper editorial by Dorothy Thompson, praising Patrick Hurley’s work as ambassador to China. n.d.

Newspaper article noting that the un-American committee of the house may make a complete investigation into the State Department after Patrick Hurley testifies. n.d.

Newspaper article describing how Patrick Hurley has effected the politics in the U.S. n.d.

Newspaper article announcing a boy scout trip to honor Patrick Hurley’s parents graves. n.d.

Newspaper article reporting on Patrick Hurley’s nomination to be ambassador to China. n.d.

Newspaper article quoting Patrick Hurley saying he will support Charles Curtis for reelection as vice-president. n.d. (2 copies)
Newspaper clipping speculating that a “short trip home” from China by Patrick Hurley may be a permanent one. n.d.

Newspaper photos and captions of a visit by Patrick Hurley to the West Point Academy. n.d.

Newspaper article noting that Patrick Hurley may be the next candidate for Secretary of War. n.d.

Newspaper article announcing a visit by Patrick Hurley to El Paso, Texas. n.d.

Newspaper editorial concerning the comradeship that the citizens of El Paso have with Patrick Hurley as he comes to inspect border posts. n.d.

Newspaper article quoting Patrick Hurley saying he feels no bad feelings in an Oklahoma state legislature race that he had recently lost. n.d.

Newspaper editorial speculating on trouble the state department has gotten into regarding Palestine and Jews. n.d.

Newspaper photo and caption of Patrick Hurley giving an award to Major General Frank R. McCoy. n.d.

Newspaper article describing an attack on Patrick Hurley outside his home. n.d.

Newspaper article featuring congressman and missionary Dr. Walter H. Judd, saying that Asia is the determining factor in the fate of the world. n.d.

Newspaper article discussing the popularity of Patrick Hurley among New Zealanders. n.d.

Newspaper article announcing a parade at Fort Bliss, which will be attended by Patrick Hurley, who will be there to review troops. n.d.

Newspaper article speculating that Patrick Hurley would be a good candidate to run with Hoover in the next election. n.d.

Newspaper article outlining a politics discussion Patrick Hurley had with citizens of El Paso, Texas. n.d.

Newspaper editorial supporting Patrick Hurley as Secretary of War. n.d.

Newspaper article noting Patrick Hurley’s intimate knowledge of the world, and how it will help him if he is elected to the U.S. Senate. n.d.
Newspaper photo and caption of a portrait painted of Patrick Hurley, to be presented to the Oklahoma Historical Society. n.d.

Newspaper photo and caption of Patricia Hurley, daughter of Patrick Hurley, and her husband Dr. Henry Beall Gwynn. n.d.

Newspaper article discussing Patrick Hurley’s campaign for U.S. senator. n.d.

Newspaper article announcing that Patrick Hurley will not be visiting his sister in El Paso. n.d.

Newspaper article discussing that Patrick Hurley has warned that the bureaucracy puts the nation in peril. n.d.

Newspaper article quoting Patrick Hurley’s opinions of U.S. spending policies at home and abroad. n.d.

Newspaper article outlining the activities of Mrs. Patrick Hurley’s life as the wife of General Hurley. n.d.

Newspaper photo and caption of Patrick Hurley arriving in Oklahoma for a visit. n.d.

Newspaper article outlining the success of Patrick Hurley and his work with Herbert Hoover. n.d.

Newspaper editorial discussing the positive effect of Patrick Hurley’s visits to Oklahoma City. n.d.

Newspaper article featuring quotes by Patrick Hurley regarding the relationship between the U.S. and China. n.d.

Newspaper article discussing George C Marshall’s visit to China, post-Hurley’s resignation. n.d.

Newspaper article discussing Patrick Hurley’s warnings of blocs of imperialists. n.d.

Newspaper article announcing Patrick Hurley’s appointment to Judge Advocate of General Roy Hoffman’s division. n.d.

Newspaper article citing Patrick Hurley as saying the political bickering in Washington needs to end to speed up the national defense program. n.d.

Newspaper article describing a reception for the birthday anniversary for the Shah of Iran, attended by Patrick Hurley. n.d.
Newspaper article announcing that Patrick Hurley may move from his present position as Choctaw Nation attorney to the position of Osage national attorney. n.d.

Newspaper article announcing the arrival of Donald M. Nelson and Patrick Hurley in Chungking on a mission for President Roosevelt. n.d.

Newspaper article announcing that the Government Loyalty Review Board will not reconsider findings that there is reasonable doubt of John Service’s loyalty. n.d.

Newspaper article announcing Patrick Hurley’s plans to visit Dallas and give a speech at the Public Affairs Luncheon Club meeting. n.d.

Newspaper article announcing the appointment of Patrick Hurley as ambassador to China. n.d.

Newspaper article discussing a quick visit to Oklahoma by Patrick Hurley, in which he wished to avoid all talk of politics. n.d.

Newspaper editorial featuring Paul Mallons view of Patrick Hurley’s accusations of the State Department. n.d.

Newspaper article announcing the naming of Patrick Hurley as brigadier general. n.d.

Newspaper photo and caption of the launching of oil tanker Patrick Hurley at Kearny, New Jersey. n.d.

Newspaper article discussing the work of President Hoover and Patrick Hurley after their return from a Caribbean vacation. n.d.

Newspaper editorial discussing Patrick Hurley’s move from Oklahoma citizen to Ambassador to China. n.d.

Newspaper article announcing Patrick Hurley as the guest of honor at a luncheon given by the New York Athletic Club. n.d.

Newspaper article discussing Patrick Hurley’s view on Yalta and the Chinese surrender to communism. n.d.

Newspaper article describing a visit to Oklahoma by Patrick Hurley in which he shunned all talk of politics. n.d.
Newspaper article discussing Patrick Hurley as national commander of Veterans of Foreign Wars. n.d.

Newspaper editorial outlining the personality of Patrick Hurley. n.d.

Newspaper photo and caption of Patrick Hurley greeting Corp. George C. Rasuseo. n.d.

Newspaper article regarding recent travels by Patrick Hurley to the Philippine Islands, Japan, and St. Louis. n.d.

Newspaper editorial by Drew Pearson, discussing Patrick Hurley’s energy and spirit as he continues his career. n.d.

Newspaper article outlining reasons for Patrick Hurley’s resignation as ambassador to China. n.d.

Newspaper article announcing Patrick Hurley’s next appointment in a regular assignment outside of the U.S. n.d.

Newspaper article providing speculation into why Patrick Hurley and his wife recently visited Mexico. n.d.

Newspaper article outlining Patrick Hurley’s life as a boy and in the government. n.d.

24. Typewritten letter from E. E. Dale to Mrs. Clifton M. Mackey, expressing his gratitude for her brother securing them a fund from Frank Phillips to buy materials for an Oklahoma history collection at the University of Oklahoma. January 7, 1927.

Typewritten letter from E. E. Dale to Mrs. Clifton M. Mackey, thanking her for making their stay in Tulsa wonderful and sending her a copy of Frontier Trails under a separate cover. June 5, 1933.

Typewritten letter from E. E. Dale to Mrs. Alice Hurley Mackey, thanking her for her brother’s address and expressing a wish for her to come visit him and Rosalie in the fall. July 17, 1933.

25. Handwritten note card listing Alice Hurley’s grades from Dr. E. E. Dale’s history class. 1916.

Typewritten letter from E. E. Dale to Mrs. Alice Hurley Mackey, thanking her for some pictures she sent, and offering suggestions for her future book or monograph projects. December 3, 1931.
Typewritten letter from Frank Phillips to Miss Martha E. McPherson, suggesting a secretary is responsible for enlisting his support for “Dale’s achievement.” December 31, 1931.

Typewritten letter from E. E. Dale to Mrs. Alice Hurley Mackey, discussing her proposed project on John Rollin Ridge and her interest on one of Dale’s articles in the Chronicles of Oklahoma. March 3, 1932.

Typewritten letter from E. E. Dale to Mrs. Alice Hurley Mackey, reporting that he will be unable to attend a meeting of the Oklahoma Historical Society in Tulsa, OK. March 29, 1932.

Typewritten letter from E. E. Dale to Mr. and Mrs. Clifton M. Mackey, inviting them to a University of Oklahoma dinner honoring Mr. and Mrs. Phillips. November 2, 1935.

Typewritten letter from E. E. Dale to Mrs. C. M. Mackey, sending his condolences for the passing of her husband. April 22, 1958.

26. Press release regarding senatorial candidate Patrick J. Hurley’s answers to questions posed by a group of American Indians from Santa Fe, NM, September 29, 1948.

Typewritten letter from Joseph A. Brandt to Mrs. C.M. Mackey, asking for her opinion on whether to include the manuscript Civilization by Thomas Wildcat Alford as a volume in the Civilization of the American Indian series. February 16, 1934.

27. Photocopied excerpts from the diaries of Mrs. Clifton Marion Mackey (Alice Hurley Mackey), 1930-1945. The excerpts primarily concern her brother, Pat Hurley.

Outsized
Diploma from the Academy of Sisters of St. Joseph Carondelet in Missouri, to Abigail Alice Hurley, upon her graduation from the same. 1912.