U.S. Army officer. Correspondence (1943–1945) from James McEldowney to relatives in Oklahoma regarding his experiences in the U.S. Army during World War II. The collection also contains correspondence (1922–1946) of James McEldowney and various family members regarding family matters, and newspaper clippings (1934–1938) and a scrapbook (1926–1927) regarding McEldowney’s activities at Roosevelt Junior High and Classen
High School in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, and Pomona College in California.

Box 1
Folder:
1. Correspondence from James McEldowney to relatives in Oklahoma, 1943-1944.
2. Correspondence from James McEldowney to relatives in Oklahoma, 1945.
3. Correspondence from James McEldowney to relatives and related materials regarding his experiences at Camp Lincoln, ca. 1928.
4. Correspondence to James McEldowney, 1939, 1945. Includes a description of military experiences in Hochst, Germany in the immediate post-war period.
5. Correspondence from M. S. McEldowney, (father of James), n.d.
6. Correspondence from Henry S. Bonnell, 1945, and military orders regarding Bonnell, 1944.
7. Correspondence from Caroline Bonnell, n.d.
8. Correspondence to Mrs. (Margaret) M. S. McEldowney, (mother of James), 1944.
9. Scrapbook of clippings, correspondence, and invitations of James McEldowney,
   ca. 1926-1927.
10. Report cards of James McEldowney from Roosevelt Junior High, ca. 1928-1930;
    newsletters from Camp Lincoln, 1928; and McEldowney’s diploma from Classen High School, 1931.
11. Invitations, fraternity rush cards, golf score cards, and college reunion materials, 1930-1945.
12. News clippings regarding James McEldowney, Pomona College, and various members and friends of the McEldowney family, 1934-1938.