Merchant. Account books (1906–1926); a letter book of outgoing correspondence (1917–1919); a record of funerals (1915–1921) from the W. H. Munger Hardware, Furniture & Undertaking Store in Watonga, Oklahoma; and a scrapbook (1905–1941) containing letters, clippings, programs, menus, and souvenirs collected by Munger’s son, Reuben Bates Munger.

Biographical Note:
On the opening day of the Cheyenne and Arapaho reservation on April 19, 1892, William H. Munger claimed a town lot in Watonga, and hauled there that evening a building that had been built at Kingfisher and cut into sections. In this building he established a hardware store and later added a funeral home and a furniture store. He and his wife served their community for more than thirty years before Munger’s death.

Items:
1. Two letter books of carbons of outgoing correspondence, 1917-1919.

Oversized:
Scrapbook, containing - correspondence, clippings, and mementos relating to the Munger family history and interests.

Ledger, in regards to the furniture, hardware, and undertaking store.  1908-1926.