Professor. Correspondence (1908–1941); reports (ca. 1941); and a map (1931) regarding Parrington and his contributions to the University of Oklahoma, as well as efforts to name a university building for him. The collection also contains a roster of University of Oklahoma graduates from 1897–1908; a history (n.d.) of the University of Oklahoma Department of English; and a report (1908) submitted by Parrington to the Board of Regents, urging them to select a new campus plan and design for the University of Oklahoma. Also included is a map of the University of Washington at Seattle, Washington, showing the location of the Parrington Building there.

Box P-22
Folder:
1. Biographical information on Parrington.
2. Information on memorial to Parrington.
3. Booklet by Parrington on architecture on other campuses.
4. Department of English at the University of Oklahoma (3-page typescript of some of the early professors)
5. Vernon L. Parrington to President Evans - November 27, 1908.
6. Floor plans of Parrington Hall at the University of Washington.
7. Miscellaneous, including lists of early graduates from the University of Oklahoma; copy of the University of Oklahoma Report of the Comptroller for the Year Ended, June 30, 1941.