Indian allottee. The enrollment record of Thomas Pumpkin (Tah Sa Co Fah Ahwee), a Euchee Creek Indian, as created by the Dawes Commission in 1902. Subsequent notes on the record, dated 1904-1909, established that Pumpkin died in 1899, three years before being enrolled by the government, and ten years before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes approved his enrollment.