
_________________________________________

The Cheyenne Star – Cheyenne, Oklahoma.
• Vol. 77, No. 45. May 16, 1985
• Vol. 77, No. 46. May 23, 1985

The Elk City Daily News - Elk City, Oklahoma.
• May 20, 1985.

The Sayre Journal – Sayre, Oklahoma.

The Western Oklahoma Green Sheet
• October 18, 1984.
• September 20, 1984
• “Males Appreciation Day honors couple for service.” Cover, June 28, 1984.
• “C.E. Rice wasn’t always a locksmith.” (Cover), May 17, 1984.
• “Cometsevah’s are more than athletes: They’re proud of their heritage.” October 21, 1982.

The Clinton Daily News – Clinton, Oklahoma.
• December 23, 1984.
• January 20, 1985
• September 2, 1984.
• “Chautauquas part of earlier Clinton summers.” P. 1 (Sec. B), June 24, 1984.
• Historical tape shows remain a ‘labor of love.’” June 15, 1984. (cutout from full paper)
• “Tom Sappington has Fond memories of tough times.” P. 2 (Sec. B), July 15, 1984.
• “Leo Brown’s roots run deep in west Oklahoma’s soil.” P. 2 (Sec. B), August 10, 1983.
• Fred Braffet smiles, says ‘I’ve been happy all my life’.” P. 7, July 27, 1983.
• “In 1929, city leaders lauded future with Lake Clinton.” P. 1 (Sec. B), June 29, 1983.
• “He’s traveled many miles since hitting road in 1966.” P. 2 (Sec B), June 15, 1983.
• “48 years of teaching enough’.” P. 3 (Sec. B), July 13, 1983.
• “Chief Hart combines new, old ways of his people.” P. 1 (Cover), July 6, 1983.
• “Life was not all bad Down on Custer County Poor Farm.” P.1 (Sec. B), February 5, 1984.
• “’Hookey’ Miller was mysterious outlaw turned lawman.” P. 2 (Sec. B) September 21, 1983.
• September 4, 1983.
• “Western History Collection a priceless state treasure.” P. 2 (Sec. B), August 24, 1983. (14 copies, 12 full and 2 cutouts)
• “Clinton’s ‘Music Man’ remembered for more than park amphitheater.” P. 5 (Sec. B), June 1, 1983.
• “’Lord Baden-Powell’ visits scouts.” P. 10, April 17, 1983.
• “James Hudson background includes farming, church.” P. 1 (Sec. B) May 11, 1983.
• “McCracken’s have helped build Clinton brick by brick.” P. 2 (Sec. B), and “Ethel McInturff’s poetry is song of Oklahoma pioneer.” P. 3 (Sec. B), April 27, 1983.
• “Memory of Arnett Cross lingering for his students.” P. 2 (Sec. B), May 25, 1983.
• “Death was common denominator for Cheyenne-Arapaho pioneers.” P. 5 (Sec. F), and “’Toots’ Richardson’s life revolves on square dance.” P. 2 (Sec. H), and “Poet-author knew Clinton when both were younger.” P. 2 (Sec. D), and “W.I. Basinger example of early country doctor.” P. 4 (Sec. A), and “Childhood in early days time of struggle, innocence.” P. 2, and “Oklahoma frontier woman faced loneliness, heat, cold, poverty.”

- “Early county officials had woes too.” P. 9, October 24, 1982.
- “Six Months as a POW.” P. 1 (Sec. B), November 10, 1982.
- “Tom Howenstine recalls early days.” P. 2 (Sec B), November 3, 1982.
- “‘Doc,’ ‘Workaholic’ both classify W.S. Mason, Jr.” P. 1 (Sec B), December 1, 1982.
- “Villareal family part of Clinton around 60 years.” P. 2 (Sec B), November 17, 1982.
- “‘Old School’ Arapaho newsman remembered.” P. 1 (Sec B), October 6, 1982.
- “Between the Bookends.” P. 7 (Sec B), January 9, 1983.
- “Jack Cuthbert ‘Mr. 66’.” P. 2 (Sec B). May 5, 1982.
• “Margaret Freidrich: Grandma savoring life.” P. 2 (Sec B). May 12, 1982.
• “Layle Botchlett has watched the changes on Frisco Street.” P. 1 (Cover). June 2, 1982.
• “Collier stores big part of Clinton area history.” P. 1 (Sec A). May 24, 1982.
• “Old Bessie ordinances tell of early day living.” P. 1 (Sec A). March 17, 1982.
• “What’s a ghost town?” P. 1 (Cover). February 17, 1982.
• “Cemetery keeper sees much more than headstones.” P. 2 (Sec B). January 6, 1982.
• “Hospital sees progress.” P. 2 (Sec B). February 24, 1982.
• “Clinton Laundry thriving concern since 1907.” P. 1 (Cover). January 3, 1982.
• “Maddox stores are part of early Clinton history.” P. 1 (Cover). December 30, 1981.

• “She’s still show director at heart.” P. 1 (Cover). October 21, 1981.

• “Frys have enjoyed world travel.” P. 2 (Sec B). September 1, 1982. (2 copies)

• “Farm, business, family all part of Boyd Cabaniss.” P. 10. September 22, 1982.

• “‘Town Pastor’ label fits.” P. 1 (Cover). September 15, 1982.

• “Arrow, Citizen, Bee were early county newspapers.” November 28, 1979. (photocopied article)

• “Columns of ‘Arapaho Bee’ will keep buzzing forever.” December (9 or 19?), 1979 (photocopied article)

• “I am the county newspaper.” October 29, 1979. (photocopied article)

The Cordell Beacon – Cordell, Oklahoma.
• “Honest Sam Massingale made his mark on Oklahoma…and the nation”. September 5, 1984.

The Leader – Weatherford, Oklahoma.

Article Manuscripts
• “Where We Live.” By Dee Ann Ray (Typed Manuscript, no date)

• “Canute Banner Became the Foss Banner Before Death.” By Dee Ann Ray (Typed Manuscript, no date)

• “Butler Herald, 1904-1947, the Voice of Western Custer County.” By Dee Ann Ray (Typed Manuscript, no date)

• “Bessie Breeze – Brief Life, but Editor Colorful.” By Dee Ann Ray (Typed Manuscript, no date)

• “The Berlin Herald – Booster Supreme!” By Dee Ann Ray (Typed Manuscript, no date)

• “Custer County News, O. T. – published in Arapaho too!” By Dee Ann Ray (Typed Manuscript, no date)

• “Custer County Clarion, O. T. – (another Arapaho Newspaper).” By Dee Ann Ray (Typed Manuscript, no date)

• “Rathbone, Oklahoma Territory, Once a Town, Now Only the Ghost Remains.” By Dee Ann Ray (Typed Manuscript, no date)