Physician. A letter (1902) to Rogers praising his services as a physician; a resolution (ca. 1945) by the Muskogee, Oklahoma, chapter of Woodmen of the World noting Rogers’s death; and a diploma (1914) issued to Rogers, along with medical instruments he used in his practice.