Ruth, Charles P. Papers, 1953. .10 foot.
Collector. Typescript (1953) by George Coffey, entitled, “Ten Days in a Hunting Camp with Charley Russell,” describing a hunting trip Coffey made with Charles M. Russell, George Coffey, Johnny Moore, George Calvert, and Jim Hobbins in the Sun River, Montana, area in 1922. Also, it details a trip George Coffey and Jim Moore went on to the junction of Pentagon Creek and Spotted Bear fork of the Flathead River (Montana) in 1923 where they bumped into Charles Russell and his friend Judge Bollinger of Davenport, Iowa. Finally, it describes a 1923 New Year’s greeting card from Charles Russell to George Coffey.
