Slack, Erle B. Drawings, 1935–1952. 1.5 feet.
Cartoonist. Nine cartoons (1948) from the "Tulsa World-Tribune;" drawings (1948) of L.L. Dresser, Will Rogers, and N.R. Graham; a pencil sketch (1935) of Warner Baxter; and sixteen original pen and ink drawings of political, social, and economic subjects, and people.

Outsized Materials:
4. Drawing entitled "By the Skin of Our Teeth," The Little Theatre Inc.
7. Pen and ink drawing with message to raise money to fight cancer.
8. Pen and ink drawing of Chet Benefiel football captain and "Gloomy Gus" Henderson, University of Tulsa.
9. Pen and ink political drawing concerning President Truman entitled "Stunting on Thin Ice."
11. Pen and ink drawing for Armed Forced Day entitled "Team For Defense."
12. Pen and ink drawing entitled "Life's Crossroad."
14. Pen and ink drawing of Major Bowes.
15. Pen and ink drawing entitled Psettus Argentens.

16. Pen and ink drawing entitled "Dogwood Lane - an old washed out back road near Barber, Okla." for series "Beautiful and Historic Oklahoma."

17. Pen and ink drawing concerning Senator Kerr's political fortunes.

18. Pen and ink drawing entitled "It's Opening Day - Tulsa Oilers vs. Oklahoma City."

19. Pen and ink drawing concerning President Truman.

22. Pen and ink drawing entitled "Fall Schedule," concerning Tulsa University football.

23. Pen and ink drawing entitled "New Year Wish … That Tolerance, Understanding and Respect Live Again Among Men of All Nations Throughout The World."