Archaeologist. Correspondence (1923–1964) received by Spring regarding archaeological projects in Oklahoma, including excavations or explorations of mounds, earthworks, settlements, and caverns. The collection includes many items of correspondence from Joseph Thoburn of the Oklahoma Historical Society, expressing that organization’s interest in Spring’s work.

Box S-35
Folder:
1. Correspondence-1923
2. Correspondence-1925
3. Correspondence-1926
4. Correspondence-1927
5. Correspondence-1928
6. Correspondence-1929
7. Correspondence-1930
8. Correspondence-1931
9. Correspondence-1932
10. Correspondence-1934
11. Correspondence-1935
12. Correspondence-1936
13. Correspondence-1963
14. Correspondence-1964
15. Miscellaneous-undated correspondence
16. Drawings and descriptions of archaeological finding
17. "A Rock Shelter Near Grove, Oklahoma" (typescript)
18. "Big Mouth Cave" (typescript)
19. Clippings