T-Bone Ranch Collection

T-Bone Ranch Collection. Papers, 1914, 1931–1932. 3 items.
Cattle ranch. Reprint of an article by Walter Harrison from the Tiny Times; a pen and ink drawing by Amber Davis; and a poem entitled “Dreams at the T-Bone Ranch,” by Clarence Douglas.

Box 1
Folder:
1. Reprint of an article by Walter M. Harrison, "Old Rugged Hank". Tiny Times, August 20, 1931. (With scenes from Baker's T-Bone Ranch, where inspiration for this article was received). 1931

2. A pen and ink drawing by Amber Davis in 1932 of a man, flying ducks, and the T-Bone Ranch. The man may be Wattie Ferguson, as the inscription on the drawing states: To remind you of glorious days and glamorous nights in the Land of the Big Salt. Tulsa 1932--Wattie Ferguson". 1932.