Ranch. Correspondence (1985–1986) with accompanying information submitted in an effort to place the ranch on the National Register of Historic Places, including maps of the ranch and environs, a history of the ranch from 1835 to 1986; and news clippings regarding the history of the town of Okay (formerly North Muskogee) in Wagoner County, Oklahoma, near where the Three Forks Ranch is located.

Box T-7
Folder:
1. One page of handwritten notes regarding the Three Forks Ranch area history. Written by Jack D. Haley, former Associate Curator of the Western History Collections.

2. Miscellaneous material regarding the Three Forks Ranch, including maps and efforts toward placing the ranch on the National Historic Register.

3. Compilation of newspaper clippings regarding the town and vicinity of Okay, in Wagoner County, Oklahoma (formerly North Muskogee).