Tucker, Fred V.  (b. ca. 1895).  Manuscript, ca. 1890–1940.  1 item.
Rancher. A photocopy of an unpublished, untitled manuscript (n.d.) by Tucker, regarding life and times (1890–1940) in Kenton, Oklahoma Territory, and the surrounding region, of which Tucker was an early resident.

1. A collection of “unrelated incidents of the Old West” collected by Tucker:
   "Grey Wolves"
   "Stampedes"
   "Indian Loyalty"
   "Indian Dinner"
   "Men Only Show"
   "Indian Code of Honor"
   "The Camp Meeting"
   "The Hungry Tramp"
   "Black Jack Ketchum" (Thomas Edward Ketchum)
   "Man and Horse"
   "Ambush"
   "Joe the Rustler"
   "Dan Brogan"
   "Traveler in Handcuffs"
   "White Caps"
   "Bud and Crip"
   "Pickens in Fords Store"
   "Good Shot"
   "The Duel"
   "Uncle Ned Prays for Rain"
   "The Houd Family", about the first family to locate in what was later No Man's Land in the Oklahoma Panhandle
   "Cowboy Prankster", about Bill Bowan
   "Burgess Killing"
   "English Luncheon"
   "Doctor Enlow"
   "The Buggy Ride"
   "Indian Hospitality"
   "$50 Reward"
   "Revenge?"
   "Doctor Slack"
   "F.B. Drew", about Fairchild Barnum Drew, a pioneer merchant in Kenton
   "Willis Mears", one of Kenton, Oklahoma's early citizens
"Indian Trackers"
"Old Joe's Son"
"Ranch Cook"
"The Derby"
"Oxen"
"The Cultivator"
"Cherokee Strip"
"Saldon Court"
"Tragedy at 2 Heart Ranch"
"Indian Jess"
"Bill Sumter and Indians"
"Moonshiners"

2. Three photocopies of photographs, courtesy of Bill Emory; an unpublished manuscript by Tucker, “Southwest Wind.”