Rancher. A scrapbook (1930–1975) of news clippings and mementos regarding early days in Kenton, Oklahoma, and vicinity; correspondence (1975–1979) and news clippings (1975–1979) regarding the discovery of prehistoric footprints, known as the “Black Mesa footprints,” on Tucker’s ranch.

__________________

Box 1
Folder:
1. Memorabilia and poems
2. Clippings of Tucker's prehistoric footprints. Several handwritten copies of stories by Tucker (20)
3. Letters to Tucker dated 1975-76; re: Black Mesa footprints
4. Letters to Tucker dated 1977-79; re: Black Mesa footprints
5. Letters to Tucker, all dateless; re: Black Mesa footprints
6. Stories, clippings and obituaries
7. Letters and clippings of various subjects
8. Letters and clippings - Tucker family history
9. Abstract of title
11. Family histories - Cowart, Vogel. Recollections of Tucker

Box 2
Folder:
2. Diary of Clara Vogel Tucker
3. Handmade notebook (1)
4. Various booklets (9)
5. Record book (1) - 1920s; recipes, grocery account

Outsized Material
Location: 8335

Scrapbook - 1930 - ?. Obituaries, poems, news of Tucker and footprints, cartoons, photographs, clippings of Black Mesa

Sound Recordings: Tape 731