Labor union. Brochures and booklets (1945–1957) published by the United Auto Workers regarding its stance on such issues as civil rights, automation, strikes, and time study, and regarding programs offered by the union, including employment plans, training programs, and guaranteed payment programs. The collection also includes copies of a journal (1956–1957) published by the union and entitled UAW Ammunition.