Collector. Photocopied family history material, including declarations of sale (1843, 1853) of slaves in the Cherokee Nation, and a declaration of land allotment (1909).

Minor Box U-1

Photocopy of a wedding invitation from Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Ross, for the marriage of Lizzie Ross to John Vann, 1877.

Photocopy of a declaration appointing Mariah Colston as guardian of Charles and Almira Rogers, 1857. The photocopies also include a list of Cherokee names, some written in Cherokee.

Photocopy of two handwritten notes:
  - Regarding money due to Charles Rogers from Col. Watie’s regiment, 1862.
  - From Lewis Keys regarding property to be given to Marien Colston, 1859.

Photocopy of a certificate from United States of America General Land Office regarding land owned by John Adair in Boone County, Missouri, 1826.

Photocopy of a handwritten bill of sale by John Foster of the Cherokee Nation, of two slaves, Peggy Louisa (?) and Joseph, to John A. Bell, 1843.

Photocopy of a letter from Almira Fields in Quartz Valley to her mother, regarding the death of “our poor little Susie,” difficult times, and family news. Jan. 8, 1867.

Photocopied newspaper clipping: "Rain Brings Out Tantalizing Golden Evidence of Treasure Buried in Grave of Gambling Hall" regarding Fort Gibson

Photocopy of Allotment Deed 35002 to Cherokee Citizen Roll No. 5437 Eliza Andre, 1909.

Photocopy of a copied handwritten bill of sale from Johnson Foreman of the Cherokee Nation to Maria Colston, for a slave named Charlot (?), 1853; and a photocopy of a bill of sale for “Charlot” from Johnson Foreman to James Colston, 1853.

Photocopied genealogical notes on the Harnage, Harlan, and Starr families.

Photocopied genealogical notes on the Harnage, Colston, Adair, and Rogers families.