Collector. Correspondence, newspaper clippings, and printed material (1953–1963) relating to the U.S. Army’s attempt to take over a part of the Wichita Mountains Wildlife Refuge for a missile firing range.

Box W-42
Folder:
1. Correspondence, including many letters regarding the Wichita Mountains Wildlife Refuge; letters from U.S. Senators Robert S. Kerr, Mike Monroney, J. Howard Edmondson, Paul H. Douglas and Irving M. Ives; letters from U.S. Congressmen Victor Wickersham and Carl Albert.

2. Information on the Wichita Mountains Wildlife Refuge.

3. Miscellaneous publications regarding the Wichita Mountains Wildlife Refuge, including material from the Congressional Record and National Parks Magazine as well as several loose pages from magazines.

4. Newspaper clippings.