History project. Typescripts of reports (1977) regarding the history of women and women’s rights in Oklahoma, as well as biographies of historically prominent women, prepared by students participating in the University of Oklahoma Women’s History Project.

Restricted: The materials in this collection are copyrighted by the University of Oklahoma Women’s Studies Program. Normal copyright restrictions apply.

Folder:
1. Typescripts:
   “Oklahoma Textures: A Personal Research” by Barbara McQuitty
   “Native American Women of the Western Plains” by Jan Painter-Somermeyer

2. Typescripts:
   “Angie Debo: An Artery to our Past” by Jane Taylor
   “The Life of Emma A. Coleman: Early Day Norman Photographer” by Teresa Terrell
   “Perle Mesta: ‘An Ardent Feminist’” by Janet Noever
   “The Woman Suffrage Movement in Oklahoma” by Gayle Barrett

3. Index to interviews with women or with reference to women in the first ten volumes of the Indian-Pioneer Papers.