Collector. A bibliography (1876–1914) compiled by Woods on index cards and slips of paper, regarding the Indians of North America in Indian Territory, the U.S. agencies responsible for their administration, the clothing and dress of whites and Indians of the western United States, and the cattle brands common to the Cherokee Strip and Oklahoma Territory. The information regarding cattle brands includes a drawing of each brand, the name and location of the ranch on which it appears, and the name of the proprietor of the ranch.