Physician. Newspaper clippings (1930–1942) collected by Rush L. Wright while superintendent of the LeFlore County Health Department, LeFlore County, Oklahoma. Most clippings are in regard to health conditions in LeFlore County, although some report on social events such as births and deaths and events sponsored by community organizations.