Young, Glen Olen (b. 1894). Papers, 1950–1953. .10 foot. Politician. A typescript of a speech (1953) by Young to the National Conference to Abolish the United Nations entitled "U.N.- Trap Door to Stalin's Jail, Baited with the Dove of Peace"; campaign literature (1950) regarding Young's candidacy for congress; a biography (n.d.) of Young, produced for his election campaign; and publications (ca. 1953) authored by Young and produced by the Presbyterian church in Sapulpa, Oklahoma, alleging massive communist infiltration of the Presbyterian Church in the United States.