

ADDENDUM TO PUBLICATION AGREEMENT

Author's Retention of Rights

1. This Addendum to Publication Agreement ("Addendum") hereby modifies and supplements the attached publication agreement (the "Publication Agreement") concerning the scholarly article entitled [Name of Article] including any supplementary materials related thereto (collectively, the "Article") in [Name of Publication].

2. The parties to the Publication Agreement and to this Addendum are: _____
(the OU "Author") and _____ (the "Publisher").

3. The parties agree that wherever there is any conflict between this Addendum and the Publication Agreement, the provisions of this Addendum will control and the Publication Agreement will be construed accordingly.

4. Notwithstanding any terms in the Publication Agreement to the contrary, Author and Publisher hereby agree as follows:

- a. All of the terms and conditions of the Publication Agreement, including, but not limited to, any and all grants, agreements, representations and warranties, are subject to and qualified by a non-exclusive license (the "License") previously granted by Author to the Board of Regents of the University of Oklahoma ("OU"). Pursuant to the License, OU may make the Article, author's final accepted version including all modifications from the peer review process or published OA version, but will not use a facsimile of the final published version of the Article unless Publisher permits use of that version, available in an open repository, including, but not limited to, OU's SHAREOK™ open access repository, and may exercise all rights under copyright relating to the Article, and may authorize others to do the same, provided that the Article is not sold for a profit.
- b. In addition to any rights retained by or granted to Author in the Publication Agreement, Author retains the non-exclusive right to make the Article available and to exercise all rights under copyright relating to the Article, in any medium, in connection with Author's teaching, conference presentations, lectures, other works of authorship, and professional activities, and to authorize others to do the same.
- c. Where applicable, all of the terms and conditions of the Publication Agreement, including but not limited to all grants, agreements, representations and warranties, are subject to and qualified by nonexclusive rights previously granted, or required to be granted, by Author to a funding entity that financially supported the research reflected in the Article as part of an agreement between Author or Author's employing institution and such funding entity, such as an agency of the United States government and/or to Author's employing institution.
- d. Within fourteen (14) days of the publication of the Article, Publisher hereby agrees to provide to Author, at no charge to Author or OU, an electronic copy of the published Article in a suitable format, such as, by way of example, the Portable Document Format (.pdf), that preserves final page layout, formatting, and content of the published version. No technical restriction, such as security settings, will be imposed to prevent copying or printing of that published version of the Article. The published version may be used in the exercise of the rights and licenses referred to in the paragraphs above.

- e. Nothing in the Publication Agreement will impose any limitation on the rights and licenses referred to in this Addendum or any obligation in connection with their exercise. Neither the existence nor the exercise of those rights and licenses will be or is hereby deemed to violate any representation or warranty or to breach the Publication Agreement.

5. Benefits to Publisher

When OU makes the Article available in SHAREOK™, OU will cite to Publisher's definitive version of the Article and will link to the Publisher's version if it is available on-line.

6. Agreement and Gratitude

Either publication of the Article or Publisher's signature below will constitute Publisher's agreement to this Addendum. On behalf of the OU administration and faculty, Author expresses gratitude to Publisher for working in partnership to implement the University of Oklahoma Policy on Open Access.
